The Company shall not be obligated under this Agreement to recognize the Union as the exclusive bargaining representative for employees at any other location.

ARTICLE II: UNION SECURITY AND CHECK-OFF

Section A: Definition

All employees who are members of the Union on the effective date of this Agreement, or voluntarily join hereafter, shall maintain their membership, or satisfy the financial obligations set by the Union during the term of this Agreement as a condition of continued employment. All employees covered by this Agreement who are not members of the Union and choose not to become members of the Union shall, as a condition of continued employment, pay to the Union an agency fee as established by the Union.

All employees hired after this effective date of this Agreement shall, within thirty-one (31) days after employment, become members or agency fee payers as a condition of continued employment for the duration of this Agreement.

Employees meet the requirement of being members in good standing of the Union within the meaning of this Article, by tendering the periodic dues and initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership in the Union, or, in the alternative, by tendering to the Union agency fees and dues, as defined by the United States Supreme Court in NLRB v. General Motors Corporation, 373 U.S. 734 (1963); and Beck v. Communications Workers of America, 487 U.S. 735 (1988).

Section B: Dues Deduction

The Company will deduct initiation fees and dues from the wages of any employee covered by this Agreement provided that the employee submits written authorization for the Company to make such deductions. Such authorization form shall be provided by the Union. The company will pay over to the proper officer of the Union the wages withheld for such initiation fees and dues. The remittance shall be accompanied by a list showing individual names, social security numbers, dates hired, and amounts deducted. The total remittances are to be made fifteen (15) days after the last day of the month for which deductions were made. The Union shall advise the Company of the amount of initiation fees and dues and the manner in which same shall be deducted. The amount so withheld, less any amounts due to any improper withholding, shall be reported and paid to the Union monthly.

Section C:

Payment for membership dues shall not be required as a condition of employment during leaves of absence without pay in excess of thirty (30) days or during periods of permanent transfer to a classification not covered by this Agreement.

Section D:

In the event of termination of employment, there shall be no obligation upon the Company to collect dues until all other deductions have been made.

Section E:

The Company will make available to the Union a list of newly hired and terminated employees covered by this Agreement. Such list will be prepared monthly and will show the name, social security number, job classification and hire or termination date of such employees who were hired or terminated during the month for which the list is prepared. This list shall be made available to the shop steward.

Section F:

The Company shall notify the Union of all job openings within the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement. The Union may refer applicants for such openings. In interviewing and hiring for such job openings, the Company will not discriminate against any applicant referred by the Union. Nothing in this contract, however, shall be construed to create an exclusive hiring arrangement, and the Company shall at all times be free to advertise and list said job openings from any sources available to the Company.

Section G:

The Company shall be the judge of the qualifications of its employees. Any employee who disputes the Company's determination of qualifications can submit a grievance on that issue.

Section H:

The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Company harmless against any claim, suits, judgments or liabilities of any sort whatsoever arising out of action taken or not taken by the Company for the purpose of complying with the provisions of this Union Security and Check-Off Article.

An employee shall lose his seniority upon his retirement, resignation or discharge for just cause. An employee will be considered to have resigned if he:

The Company fulfills its obligations under this Section by sending notice by telegram or by certified letter to the last known address of the employee. It is the obligation of the employee to keep the Company informed of his current address and telephone number.

Section F.

An employee who has occupied a position with the Company covered by this Agreement and who accepts a position with the Company in a classification not covered by this Agreement will continue to accrue seniority for nine (9) months, after which period he shall retain his accumulated seniority, provided, he remains in the employ of the employer.
