Mandatory Detention Under INA § 236(c)

- First, what is the most reliable way of determining how many individuals were detained under INA § 236(c)? These individuals should have been charged with a ground of removability listed at INA § 236(c) and been in removal proceedings before the immigration judge (IJ) or Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) on the date at issue. Should we simply add up the number of detainees under each "charge section" that is listed at INA § 236(c)? Can we be sure that all of those individuals were before the IJ or BIA in their removal proceedings?

"Charge Section"

- Detainees are frequently charged with several grounds of removability. For example, a detainee with a drug trafficking conviction may be charged as removable under the aggravated felony provision at INA § 237(a)(2)(A)(iii) as well as the controlled substance offense provision at INA § 237(a)(2)(B)(i). How does ERO determine what charge to list in the "charge section" field?
