My media outreach team headed up by ((D)(6) is standing by to help market regional media interviews for the FOB turnover team if you would like some help. In particular, regional radio which is easy to do for any or all personnel who have access to a telephone. Doesn't necessarily have to be a flag officer either.

Totally understand. LTC (P)(b)(6) (former MNF-I CPIC director) is the new strategic comms director at the Army's Combined Arms Command at Ft. Leavenworth, working for LTG Petraeus, and he wants the listing to help support the CAC and its agenda. I can think of no more trusted party. If you want to talk to him he can be reached at (b)(2) well, i hesitate... simply b/c we had an episode a week or two ago where a "trusted" party didn't guard the list and i accidentally was included in a cc line (thankfully) where they were passing it around. yikes! can you be more specific about what they want the list for and perhaps who it is?? our pucker factor is a little high with it right now. sorry to be difficult.

first, i need to patch up the hole i just punched in the wall! ugh.

actually, i just called him. he said he just wanted the names to see if we'd added any. he understands about the addresses and said he'd shred the hard copy he has and make sure it's not lurking anywhere on their drives. hopefully that will clear up the problem. good grief.

i just heard back from (b)(6) in baghdad, they have the mil analysts penciled in for 9-13 july. i checked ab's schedule and those dates work for her (sunday through thurs), they cannot have us there on the 14 and 15 (big dog visit) and the following week won't work b/c ab leaves on the 22nd for her long-overdue and not-to-be-messed-with vacation! :)

is there any interest in slapping afghan onto the end of this trip? so, iraq from 10-13 july and then afghan 15-17 july, returning to the u.s. on 19 july? things seem to be heating up a bit in afghan, so it's not a bad idea to go...

they need the country clearance asap to start making this happen. if ok with you, i could send these very tentative dates to the analysts and see who bites. i've already had several of them come back at my gitmo email saying that they want the iraq/afghanistan trip. i've had the most requests for afghan since most of them have been to iraq.

also, fyi, there are apparently also governors visiting at that time, so the "level" of dv is important. i told her that it would be 3-star equivalent, as well as the potential for a retired 4-star. let me know

thanks

(b)(6) says that he still does not have an analyst listing from comrel. It looks like he will be managing DoD's interaction with them now in his "surrogate program" role. I want to ask (b) to send him the list, but thought I would check in with you first.

Subject: Wednesday

OSD Public Affairs requests that Brigadier General Brooks, participate in an outreach briefing for a group of key military analysts assembled by the OSD-PA Office of Community Relations and Public Liaison.

The purpose of this meeting is to provide military analysts for print and broadcast media with an update on the global war on terrorism and other current military operations.

General Brooks' participation, consisting of brief remarks and Q&A, is requested for 20 to 30 minutes on Wednesday, September 8, 2004 in room 3E869. We request that General Brooks would address current detainee operations. If General Brooks accepts the invitation to speak before this group, we would adjust the current agenda to accommodate him.

General Richard Myers, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has been invited and asked to provide an update on the global war on terrorism and the way ahead. Mr. Doug Feith, Undersecretary of Defense for Policy, has been invited and asked to speak on Global Posturing.

The draft agenda and list of invited military analysts is attached.

۰... • در ۱۰ • در ۱۰ Please assign a tour guide to help with this group. The group list is on the attached document. Expect these individuals to arrive between 0800 and 0830. Have the tour guide hold a sign that reads "Military Analysts' Meeting."

They have all been here before (many times) and probably know the way as well as any tour guide.

Thanks for the quick response.

CENTCOM would like to arrange a call for Monday, August 7, at 1500 with GEN Abizaid. Attribution would be background at this point. Would this be a problem to arrange? I think we'd get a lot of takers for something like this one.

As RSVP's come in, reply asking how the participant will arrive at the Pentagon. There is a sample dialog saved in the Template folder entitled "arrival dialog for participants".

Go to event folder and open ARRIVAL document. As Arrival replies come in enter the information under the appropriate place in the arrival document. Save all incoming emails until event is past.

3 days prior to the event, make follow up phone calls to those that have not replied, and finalize any missing arrival information.
