

An Evening Session with the Indian Trust Commission

When: June 11, 2012

Where: All Indian Pueblo Cultural Center
2401 12th Street, NW
Albuquerque, NM 87104

Time: 7:00 p.m.—9:00 p.m.

The Secretarial Commission on Indian Trust Administration and Reform (known as Indian Trust Commission or ITC) is extending an invitation to the various American Indian Youth Organizations to hear the voices of our future. The ITC wants to hear your creative ideas and create a dialogue to discuss the future of Department of the Interior trust management

The ITC is a five-member commission appointed by the Secretary of the Department of the Interior. The ITC is charged with analyzing the federal governments handling of trust administration and management and to provide recommendations to the Secretary for improving trust responsibilities to American Indians and Alaska Natives. To read more about the work of the Indian Trust Commission, please visit <http://www.doi.gov/cobell/commission/index.cfm>

If you have any questions, please contact either:
Patricia Gerard at (505) 816-1048
Helen Riggs at (505) 816-1131

To contact the Designated Federal Officer, please contact Lizzie Marsters, whose contact information is to the right —

The reception is open to all interested youths and young adults. Light refreshments will be served. No RSVP is required.

Department of the Interior Office of the Secretary

Lizzie Marsters, Designated Federal Officer
Chief of Staff to the Deputy Secretary
1849 C Street, NW, Room 6119
Washington, DC 20240

Phone: (202) 219-7499

