

Your electronic dietitian

The Nutrition Management Information System [NMIS] is a fully integrated nutrition management system supporting military readiness and the war fighter worldwide. NMIS enables Department of Defense Military Health System dietetics personnel to provide preventive and therapeutic medical nutrition and food management to service members and their beneficiaries.

Product Features

- Monitors individual diets
- Ensures appropriate nutrition to all hospitalized patients

Benefits to the Military Health System

- A fully integrated nutrition management system
- Delivers medical nutrition therapy and medical food management
- Customizes clinical nutrition practice patterns

