Hiki No. After a half-hour or so of trolling, I look back to see a good sized Mahi doing its dance, and Kamauliola is cheering as he watches it go airborne. The fish turned out to be a stubborn one and did all its tricks, including jumping over ten times and also going down deep. I just took my time and tired it out so it wouldn't go ballistic when it got in the boat. After getting the fish all iced down in the fishbag, he said "we got fish, let's go already." This Bull Mahimahi weighed in at 31.5 lbs!
