National Maritime Center Phone Issues

The National Maritime Center Customer Service Call Center is currently experiencing a phone system problem. While we are still able to receive calls, customers on hold may experience a loud buzzing noise. We are working to address the issue and customers are encouraged to call back, leave a message or contact us via email at IASKNMC@uscg.mil if you experience this problem. We will provide an additional update when the problem is corrected.

Sincerely,

/A. S. Lloyd/
