COURT ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

J. SHAPIRO CO. ENJOINED. The SEC Chicago Regional Office announced that on April 13 the Federal court in Minneapolis preliminarily enjoined J. Shapiro Co. from violating the net capital provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. J. Shapiro Co. consented to the court order without admitting or denying the allegations. Upon application of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, J. Shapiro Co. on April 13 consented to the appointment of a trustee for the liquidation of J. Shapiro Co. SIPC alleged that J. COURT OF APPEALS REVERSES COURT ORDER DECLARING UNCONSTITUTIONAL SECTION OF SIPC ACT RE APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEE. On April 11, 1973, the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit reversed from the bench an order entered by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on January 26, 1973, in Securities and Exchange Commission and Securities Investor Protection Corporation v. Oxford Securities, Ltd., et al. That order had declared unconstitutional a section of the Securities Investor Protection Act, which provides in part that where a securities broker or dealer is to be liquidated under the terms of the Act a district court shall appoint as trustee and as attorney for such trustee "such persons as SIPC shall specify!" Following the reversal by the appellate court, the district court appointed, in accordance with the designations of SIPC, Salvator A. Adorno, Esquire, as SIPC trustee and Krause, Hirsch & Gross as counsel for the trustee, all of New York, New York. (LR-5860)

Schwartz, a/k/a Dixbie Schwartz was sentenced to the Medical Center for Federal Prisons for 90 days. Thereafter, depending upon the medical report, Schwartz was sentenced to serve 5 years concurrently on each of 27 counts and 2 years consecutively on 1 count for a maximum of 7 years. These sentences were imposed in connection with a cattle fraud investment contract case. (LR-5861)
