CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

HARBOUR BAY FINANCIAL CO., LAURA M. MARABLE, AND ROBERT STINSON, JR., TEMPORARILY ENJOINED

On May 25, the Commission announced the filing of a Complaint in the U. S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania against Harbour Bay Financial Company (Harbour Bay), Laura M. Marable (Marable), and Robert Stinson, Jr. (Stinson). In its Complaint, the Commission seeks a temporary restraining order, preliminary and permanent injunctions, disgorgement and prejudgment interest, a freeze of assets, and an order of accounting. The Honorable James T. Giles, United States District Court Judge, with the consent of the defendants, entered the temporary restraining order, freeze of assets, and order of accounting, pending a preliminary injunction hearing on May 31, 1990.

The Complaint alleges violations of the antifraud and broker-dealer registration provisions of the federal securities laws. In its Complaint, the Commission alleges that, from at least December 1989 through the present, the defendants have failed to register Harbour Bay as a broker, but have induced and attempted to induce the purchase and sale of securities for the accounts of others. The Complaint alleges that Harbour Bay, through Marable and Stinson, are soliciting the business of raising venture capital in the form of public and private placements. In addition, since at least December 1989, the defendants have sold securities in a television broadcasting venture, in the form of limited partnership interests. The Complaint also alleges that the defendants misled investors about the use and disposition of their proceeds, the risks associated with their investments, their status as an unregistered broker, the amount of the broadcasting venture's assets, and Stinson's previous convictions for mail and wire fraud. The Complaint alleges that the defendants misappropriated investor proceeds. (SEC v. Harbour Bay Financial Company, et al., Civil Action No. 90-3580) (LR-12488)
