RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

ACCOUNTANT LIABILITY FOR REPORTS ON UNAUDITED INTERIM FINANCIAL INFORMATION UNDER SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

Since the issuance of Statement on Auditing Standards No. 24 (SAS No. 24) by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) in March 1979, several reports by independent public accountants on interim unaudited financial information have been included in Securities Act filings on Form S-16 or S-14. Such filings have raised a question of whether accountants could be liable under Section 11(a) of the Securities Act (which imposes liability on every accountant "who has with his consent been named as having prepared ... any report") in such circumstances. The Commission is proposing for comment two alternative rules which, if adopted, would have the effect of excluding accountants issuing such reports from Section 11(a) liability. Comments should be submitted in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549, on or before November 15 and should refer to File No. S7-801. All comments will be available for public inspection. (Rel. 33-6127)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST HERBERT E. OTTO

On September 13 the Honorable Barron P. McCune, U.S. District Court Judge for the Western District of Pennsylvania, entered an order (1) preliminarily enjoining Herbert E. Otto from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer, purchase and sale of promissory notes, options and other securities, (2) freezing the defendant's assets and property except for ordinary living expenses, and (3) ordering that an accounting be performed of all investor funds paid to the defendant and of all proceeds of loans or other assets received by the defendant. The defendant consented to entry of this order by Judge McCune.

Previously, on September 10, the Honorable Louis Rosenberg, Senior Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, entered an order (1) temporarily restraining the defendant, Herbert E. Otto of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, from further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer, purchase and sale of securities, (2) freezing the assets and property of the defendant, except for ordinary living expenses, and (3) ordering an accounting be performed of all investor funds paid to the defendant and of all proceeds of loans or other assets received by the defendant.

The Commission filed a complaint on September 10 alleging violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws by the defendant in the offer, purchase and sale of promissory notes, options and other securities and seeking preliminary and permanent injunctions, an accounting and a freeze of assets. The complaint alleges, among other things, that in the above offers, purchases and sales, the defendant made untrue statements of material facts and failed to state material facts relating to his purported success in options trading which guaranteed profits of from 16 to 20 percent. The hearing on Plaintiff's request for a permanent injunction is scheduled for October 19 in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. (SEC v. Herbert E. Otto, W.D. Pa., Civil Action No. 79-1270). (LR-8874)
