COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE SEC EXTENDS THE DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING COMMENTS REGARDING CORPORATE CHARITABLE GIVING DISCLOSURE AND DECISIONMAKING

The Commission announced today that it is extending the deadline for the public to comment on matters related to charitable giving by public companies. Comments are requested by December 15, 1997. The SEC is studying these issues at Congress' request in connection with pending legislation about charitable contributions by public companies. In general, one bill would require public companies to disclose their charitable contributions and a second bill would require each public company to allow its shareholders to participate in deciding which charities the company should contribute to and how much to contribute. Comments are sought on the feasibility and the costs and benefits of each proposal. The text of the invitation including copies of the actual bills is currently available in paper format and on the SEC's web page on the Internet <<http://www.sec.gov/rules/other/chgive.htm>>. For further information, please contact the Division of Corporation Finance at (202) 942-2900.

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

DECISION SANCTIONING JOHN CRANLEY, JR. AND THOMAS CORE FINAL

The decision of an administrative law judge imposing sanctions on John J. Cranley, Jr. of Summit, New Jersey, and Thomas Core of New York City, has become final. Cranley and Core were partners in the former New York City brokerage firm Moore & Schley, Cameron & Co. The law judge's order censured respondents and barred them from association with any broker or dealer in a supervisory or proprietary capacity.

In November 1994, Cranley and Core were permanently enjoined, with their consent, from further violations of antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act. The injunctive action was based on charges that, during the period August 1987 through March 1989, respondents participated in the manipulation of two securities. (Rel. 34-39339; File No. 3-9019)

SEC v. PARAMOUNT CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, INC. AND JOHN DOE A/K/A "KENNETH BRIDGET"

The Commission announced that it filed a complaint yesterday in federal court in Manhattan charging an unregistered broker-dealer and an individual with defrauding investors by inducing them to invest in a fictitious initial public offering (IPO). The court granted the Commission's request for emergency relief, including a temporary restraining order and an asset freeze.

The complaint names Paramount Capital Management, Inc. (Paramount), a New York corporation having office space at 11 Broadway, Suite 950, New York, New York 10004; and "John Doe," whose true identity is unknown, but who holds himself out as "Kenneth Bridget," an account executive and senior vice president of Paramount.

Specifically, according to the complaint, since at least July 1997, Paramount and "Kenneth Bridget" have been offering and selling securities in a fictitious IPO of "Micronet Corp." The complaint further alleges that Paramount and John Doe deceived investors by falsely portraying themselves as a bona fide broker-dealer and registered representative.

The Commission also announced that the court issued an order yesterday afternoon that, among other things, temporarily restrains Paramount and John Doe from further committing securities fraud in violation of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act), and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rule 10b-5, and from continuing to operate as a broker-dealer without being registered, in violation of Section 15(a) of the Exchange Act.

The Commission seeks a final judgment permanently enjoining defendants from violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act and Sections 10(b) and 15(a) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5, and ordering them to disgorge their ill-gotten gains and to pay prejudgment interest.
