PROCEEDINGS AGAINST AMERICAN FORESIGHT, INC., THOMAS HEFFERNAN AND FRANK MAXWELL

The Commission announced that American Foresight, Inc. (AFI), a registered investment adviser, and its principal, Thomas Heffernan, without admitting or denying the allegations, consented to the entry of permanent injunctions prohibiting them from violating the antifraud and custody provisions of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. The permanent injunction also ordered disgorgement of $66,599.25, provided that disgorgement be waived based upon their inability to pay. AFI and Heffernan also consented to the issuance of administrative orders revoking AFI's registration and barring Heffernan from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company, or municipal securities dealer, with a right to reapply to be so associated after five years.

The Commission's injunctive action was based upon allegations that Heffernan and AFI misappropriated $66,599.25 of client funds that should have been invested in securities. Instead, Heffernan allegedly used these funds to pay personal and business expenses. The complaint further alleged that Heffernan attempted to conceal his fraud by falsely representing the misappropriations as "loans" in statements sent to clients. Furthermore, the complaint alleged that AFI took improper custody of client funds and failed to disclose its precarious financial condition. [SEC v American Foresight, Inc., Thomas F. Heffernan and Frank Rollins Maxwell, 91 Civ 5382, PNL, SDNY] (LR-13403)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS AGAINST T.B. STRICKLAND, JR., ET AL.

The Commission announced that on September 30 it filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Alabama against T.B. Strickland, Jr. (Strickland), a former director of First Federal Savings Bank of Decatur, Alabama, Michael R. Strickland, Strickland's son; John M. Cunningham and Steven J. McKee, Strickland's sons-in-law; and Edward S. Alldredge, Strickland's brother-in-law. The complaint alleges that in October 1988 Strickland purchased First Federal shares while in possession of material, nonpublic information concerning a proposed merger and tipped the other defendants who then purchased before the public announcement

Simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, the defendants consented without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations to be permanently enjoined from future violations of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The permanent injunction also ordered the defendants to disgorge the profits attributable to their trades, totaling $36,375 in the aggregate, plus prejudgment interest and to pay ITSA penalties equal to the amount of their profits. In addition, defendant Strickland agreed to pay an ITSA penalty of $36,375. On October 5, the Honorable William M. Acker, Jr., of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Alabama, entered judgment against the defendants. [SEC v. T.B. Strickland, Jr., et al., Civil Action No. CV-92-AR-2301-S, N.D. Ala.] (LR-13407)

COMPLAINT AGAINST STEVEN GLAUBERMAN, ET AL.

The Commission announced that on October 6 Judge Michael B. Mukasey of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York entered a Final Judgment against Eben P. Smith (Smith), which permanently enjoins him from future violations of Sections 10(b) and 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5 and 14e-3 thereunder. The permanent injunction also requires that Smith and the custodian of his minor children's accounts disgorge $747,925.40 and $491,227, respectively, in alleged insider trading profits. Entry of the Judgment followed Judge Mukasey's July 16, 1992 decision that it was fair to require disgorgement from the minors' accounts of trading profits allegedly made in accounts in the minors' names and also, over objection by the children's guardian, money that Smith deposited into the minors' accounts both during the insider trading scheme charged in the complaint and while the Commission was investigating the scheme. Smith consented to the entry of the Final Judgment without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. [SEC v. Steven L. Glaubergerman, et al., 90 Civ. 5202, MBM] (LR-13408)
