JOHN GENETTI PLEADS GUILTY

The U.S. Attorney for the Central District of California and the Commission announced that on November 6 John Genetti (Genetti) pleaded guilty to a five-count Information charging him with racketeering, securities fraud and engaging in unlawful monetary transactions in connection with his role in a scheme to defraud investors through the sale of bogus municipal bonds. The Information charges that Genetti misrepresented among other things, that securities sold by Reserve Financial Group, First Securities Group of California, Inc. and FSG Financial Services, Inc. (FSG) were represented to be tax-free municipal bonds issued, backed or sanctioned by various governmental entities. It also charges that Genetti, together with others, controlled the scheme, that the scheme raised approximately $39,000,000 and that Genetti received more than $8,500,000.

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

THOMAS MULLENS INDICTED FOR ADDITIONAL CHARGES

The Commission announced that on October 29, 1992 a Grand Jury returned a superseding indictment against Thomas Mullens (Mullens) of Boca Raton, Florida. Mullens was the former president of Omni Capital Group, Ltd. (Omni). The original indictment charged Mullens with mail and wire fraud. The superseding indictment charges Mullens with additional violations for conspiracy, conducting financial transactions with proceeds from unlawful activities and engaging in monetary transactions in criminally derived property.

The indictment charges that between May 1989 and April 15, 1992 Mullens engaged in a scheme to obtain over $17 million in money and property from investors by selling interests in various Omni sponsored limited partnerships. The indictment alleges that to induce victims to invest funds, Mullens made misrepresentations and omissions of material facts concerning Mullens' criminal history, the use of offering proceeds, Omni's business plans and various risk factors.

On April 24, 1992, the Commission filed a complaint against Mullens based on the same transactions and occurrences that are alleged in the indictment. [U.S. v. Mullens, Case No. 92-8060-CR-JAG(S), S.D. Fla.] (LR-13436)
