CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION GRANTED AGAINST MARK SENDO AND OTHERS

The New York Regional Office announced that on July 18 Judge Owen of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York granted a preliminary injunction against Mark Sendo, Scott Burman and Richard Tringale. The court made a preliminary finding that these defendants engaged in a substantial "free-riding" scheme whereby they bought and sold securities without the means to pay for the securities. Instead, they relied on the anticipated proceeds from offsetting trades to provide the means for settlement, thereby shifting the risk of loss to their brokers.

The court found that the defendants opened 46 securities accounts at 15 brokerage firms, causing collective losses to brokers of $3.4 million. The court held that such free-riding conduct involves misrepresentations and omissions in violation of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The court also held that the conduct violates the credit regulation provisions of Section 7(f) of the Exchange Act and Regulation X promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve.

The court granted a preliminary injunction restraining further violations, an order freezing the defendants' assets and an order requiring the defendants to account for their assets and for their securities trading during the relevant period. [SEC v. Mark Sendo, Scott Burman and Richard Tringale, et. al., 91 Civ. 4408, RO, SDNY] (LR-12923)

GUILTY PLEA BY NICODEMUS FAITOS

The New York Regional Office announced that on July 18 Nicodemus Faitos, former president of Faitos & Co., Inc., a mutual fund dealership, pleaded guilty to a two-count information charging mail fraud and wire fraud. The information charged that Faitos defrauded thirty-eight former customers out of at least $1.2 million, by liquidating their mutual fund shares, misappropriating the liquidation proceeds and sending the customers false statements purporting to show that their money was still invested.

Faitos and Faitos & Co. previously consented to final judgments of permanent injunction, disgorgement and an accounting in a civil action brought by the Commission and to the appointment of a trustee for Faitos & Co. in an action brought by SIPC. Faitos' guilty plea was based in large part upon facts developed by the Commission's investigation. Faitos faces a sentence of up to five years in prison and a $250,000 fine on each of the two counts in the information. Sentencing is scheduled for October 3, 1991. [SEC v. Nicodemus Faitos and Faitos & Co., Inc., 91 Civ. 0690, EDNY] (LR-12924)

LEE WILLIAMS AND STEVEN SANDERS ENJOINED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on July 22 the Honorable Harold A. Baker, U.S. District Court Judge for the Central District of Illinois, permanently enjoined Lee Lon Williams, Lon Williams d/b/a LLW & Associates (Williams), and Steven M. Sanders (Sanders) from further violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. Sanders was also enjoined from violations of the broker-dealer registration provisions. Williams and Sanders consented to the entry of the injunctions without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint. The court left open the issue of disgorgement.

In its complaint, the Commission alleged that between 1984 and 1988 Williams and Sanders obtained approximately $800,000 from at least 36 investors through the fraudulent offer and sale of securities in the form of investment contracts and that Williams and Sanders used these monies for their own personal and business expenses. [SEC v. Lee Lon Williams, Lon Williams d/b/a LLW & Associates and Steven M. Sanders, C.D. Ill., No. 90-2263, August 10, 1990] (LR-12925)
