COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

OCT 29 1991

U.S. SECURITIES

EFFECTS OF MOVE TO NEW OPERATIONS CENTER EXCHANGE COMMISSION

The SEC has scheduled the Veterans Day holiday weekend to move its data processing operations and staff to the new Operations Center site in Virginia.

SEC's mainframe functions (those operated by the Office of Information Systems Management and by the Office of EDGAR Management) will be shut down at 5:30 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. respectively on Thursday, November 7, 1991. We expect to be fully operational by 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, November 12. Considering the complexity of this move, however, there is at least a possibility that the shutdown may be extended through 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday, November 13. The EDGAR Pilot operation will not be shut down.

The Form 8-K listings and registration filings usually printed in the Digest will not be available during this transition period. Dissemination of paper filings to the press and Public Reference Room will not be disrupted.

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

OREGON TELEPHONE PROMOTER CONSENTS TO INJUNCTION

The Commission announced that on August 27 Kurt L. Hagerman of Salem, Oregon was enjoined by consent from violation of the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. It was alleged that he misrepresented, among other things, the use of investor funds in connection with sales of investment contracts and limited partnership interests.

Hagerman and his wholly controlled company sold 1,180 telephone booths and locations to investors, promising them a monthly income check from pay phone collections. It was alleged that he used funds from new investors to pay the monthly income due previous investors. It was also alleged that he concealed his poor financial condition and that of his company, which filed under the Bankruptcy Code in mid-1989.

The Commission acknowledges the assistance of the Oregon State Department of Commerce and its Securities Division in the investigation leading to the permanent injunction. [SEC v. Kurt L. Hagerman, C91-6374-JO, D.OR] (LR-13056)

FINAL JUDGMENT OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST JAY KENNETH COX

The Commission announced that on September 30 Judge James H. Jarvis of the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Tennessee, entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against Jay Kenneth Cox of Bristol, Tennessee. Cox was employed as a registered representative of J.J.B. Hilliard, W.L. Lyons, Inc., a broker-dealer registered with the Commission. The final judgment enjoins him from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act 1934 and rules thereunder. Cox consented to the entry of the Final Judgment without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint.

The Commission's complaint filed on September 30 alleges that Cox, during the period from in or about October 1987 through November 1988, effected unauthorized sales of securities from customer accounts and effected unauthorized margin loans to a customer account. The complaint also alleges that he forged customers' signatures to letters instructing that his brokerage firm issue checks to customers, forged customers' endorsements to checks issued by his firm and deposited checks payable to his customers into his own accounts for his own use and benefit. Cox had previously pled guilty in Tennessee state court to 31 felony counts including grand larceny, forgery and uttering a forged instrument and was sentenced to four years in prison. [SEC v. Jay Kenneth Cox, Civil Action No. 3-91-572, USDC, E.D. Tenn.] (LR-13057)

FINAL JUDGEMENT OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST JAMES HARDIN

The Commission announced that on September 30 Judge James H. Jarvis of the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Tennessee, entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief against James M. Hardin of Knoxville, Tennessee. Hardin was employed as a registered representative of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith. The Final Judgment enjoins him from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and rules thereunder and orders disgorgement of his ill-gotten gains. Hardin consented to the entry of the Final Judgment without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint. The Commission's complaint filed on September 30 alleges that Hardin misdirected customer funds and engaged in unauthorized securities options trading resulting in customer losses in excess of $1 million, directly misappropriated funds from his customers in the amount of $129,105 and earned commissions of $44,609 from his unauthorized trading. [SEC v. James M. Hardin, Civil Action No. 3-91-571, USDC, E.D. Tenn., September 30] (LR-13058)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

WILLARD MAY INDICTED

The Commission announced that on October 11 a Randall County, Texas (Amarillo) grand jury returned six indictments against Willard E. May (May) of Alpharetta, Georgia charging him with fraud in connection with the offer and sale of first mortgage bonds issued by Church and Institutional Facilities Development Corporation (C&I).

The six indictments charge that May, in the offer and sale of securities, misrepresented material facts and omitted material facts concerning a number of subjects including the availability of insurance coverage indemnifying C&I bondholders against loss and the collateral position of C&I on certain loans made by C&I from proceeds of bond sales. The misrepresentations and omissions also concerned the availability of revenues to C&I from repayment of long-term loans to pay principal and interest on short-term bonds, the failure of C&I to follow its mandatory guidelines for making loans and the issuance of a Temporary Restraining Order against American Casualty and Surety Corporation and May in April 1989. The Temporary Restraining Order prohibited the issuance of additional bond indemnification policies and/or the renewal of existing policies. [State of Texas v. Willard E. May, 7704-A] (LR-13059)

INDICTMENT CHARGES TWO WITH CONSPIRACY, SECURITIES FRAUD, FALSE FILINGS AND MONEY LAUNDERING

The Commission and Charles H. Turner, U.S. Attorney for the District of Oregon, announced the filing of a ten-count indictment in the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon on October 9 against George R. Heublein, formerly the president of Melridge, Inc. who is now a fugitive and was last believed to be in Guatemala, and Gordon H. Flattum, a certified public accountant of Tacoma, Washington. The indictment charges both defendants with conspiracy to defraud the United States, securities fraud, three counts of false filings with the SEC and money laundering. Heublein was additionally charged with four counts of bank fraud. [U.S. v. George R. Heublein and Gordon H. Flattum, No. CR 91-349, District of Oregon] (LR-13060)
