ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST MABON, NUGENT & CO.

The Commission issued an order instituting administrative proceedings, making findings and imposing remedial sanctions against Mabon, Nugent & Co., a New York based broker-dealer. The Commission found that the firm failed reasonably to supervise a person in a branch office subject to its supervision with a view to preventing violations of the antimanipulative and antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The order discussed certain transactions for customers of the firm in the common stock of Wainoco Oil Corporation during the period from July 7 through July 23, 1982. Mabon Nugent was censured and ordered to comply with certain undertakings made in connection with the resolution of the proceedings. The firm consented to the issuance of the order without admitting or denying the allegations or findings contained in the order. (Rel. 34-19424 - see 34-19425 and LR-9866)

ALAN B. HARP CITED

Public administrative proceedings have been instituted against Alan B. Harp of Houston, Texas, pursuant to Section 15(b)(6) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, to determine in part whether Harp has engaged in conduct in violation of certain provisions of the securities laws.

The order for proceedings includes staff allegations that, during the period from July 7 through July 23, 1982, Harp wilfully violated antimanipulative and antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act. It is alleged that Harp maintained, dominated, controlled and manipulated the market in the common stock of Wainoco Oil Corporation on the New York Stock Exchange.

A hearing will be scheduled by further order of an administrative law judge for the purpose of taking evidence with respect to the staff's allegations, to afford Harp an opportunity to establish any defense to the allegations and to determine what remedial action, if any, should be ordered by the Commission. (Rel. 34-19425 - see 34-19424 and LR-9866)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER ISSUED AGAINST DOMINICK MUSELLA, OTHERS

The Commission announced that on January 12 Judge Charles S. Haight of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York issued a temporary restraining order and an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued on January 20 prohibiting Dominick Musella, Albert J. DeAngelis, Anthony Brunetti, Thomas Dispigno, Richard I. Rosenkranz, John Musella, Vito Rossini, Edward O'Neill and Richard V. Martin from further violations of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5, and Dominick Musella, DeAngelis, John Musella, Rossini, O'Neill and Martin from further violations of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14e-3. The order also provided for a temporary freeze of certain assets of Dominick and Musella and DeAngelis, an accounting of profits derived from allegedly violative securities transactions by them and for expedited discovery. (SEC v. Dominick Musella, et al., USDC SDNY, Civil Action No. 83-0342). (LR-9864)

AMERICAN COMPLETION AND DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION ENJOINED

The Commission announced that a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction was entered on January 12 by the Honorable Leonard B. Sand of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York enjoining American Completion and Development Corporation (ACDC) from further violations of tombstone advertisement and antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 in the advertising and promotion of American Completion Program-1982 (ACP-82), an oil and gas limited partnership offering. The judgment requires ACDC to make offers of rescission to certain purchasers of limited partnership interests in ACP-82. ACDC consented to the entry of the judgment without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint which was filed simultaneously with the Judgment.

The complaint alleged that ACDC violated Section 5(b)(1) of the Securities Act by publishing advertisements for ACP-82, in the Wall Street Journal, Barron's and monthly publications, which provide information not permitted by the Commission's advertising rules in Section 2(l) of the Securities Act and Rule 134. The complaint further alleged that the advertisements contained a false statement concerning the terms of ACDC's investment in ACP-82 limited partnerships and misleading statements concerning the uniqueness of the investment, its risk and the availability of certain tax benefits, in violation of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act. (SEC v. American Completion and Development Corporation, USDC SDNY, Civil Action No. 83-387). (LR-9865)

TEXAS GENERAL RESOURCES, INC. AND WILBUR E. BOSARGE ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on January 12 the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York entered Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction enjoining Texas General Resources, Inc. and its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Wilbur Edwin Bosarge, from violating the antimanipulative and antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Commission's complaint alleged that the defendants maintained, dominated, controlled and manipulated the market in the common stock of Wainoco Oil Corporation on the New York Stock Exchange from July 7 through July 23, 1982. The complaint alleged that the defendants acted in order to avoid a contractual obligation of Texas General to deliver additional shares of Wainoco stock should the market price fall below a prescribed level. The defendants consented to the entry of the Final Judgments without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. (SEC v. Texas General Resources, Inc. and Wilbur Edwin Bosarge, Jr., USDC SDNY, Civil Action No. 83-0397). (LR-9866 - see 34-19424 and 34-19425)
