U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

RICHARD W. SUTER PRELIMINARILY ENJOINED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on February 11 Judge William T. Hart, U.S. District Judge for the Northern District of Illinois, entered an Order for Preliminary Injunction against Richard W. Suter (Suter) and Richard W. Suter, doing business as National Investment Publishing Co. (National), enjoining them from further violations of the recordkeeping and antifraud provisions of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and the registration and antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in connection with the offer and sale of securities. In addition, the Court ordered an accounting of all funds raised from investors.

Suter and National publish an investment advisory newsletter known as the Profit Report. The Preliminary Injunction enjoined defendants from making false and misleading statements in the materials which they use to solicit subscriptions to their publication. The Court also found that the defendants had knowingly destroyed books and records required to be kept by the defendants pursuant to the Advisors Act. In addition, the Court found that the defendants had violated the registration provisions of the Securities Act in the offer and sale of unregistered securities in the form of interests in the subscription income from National's newsletters. In the offer and sale of these securities, the Court found defendants violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act.

In a related Administrative Proceeding, National's registration as an investment adviser with the Commission had been revoked and Suter and National had been barred from future association with any investment adviser on August 27, 1982, in an initial decision by an Administrative Law Judge. The initial decision was based on findings that Suter and National had defrauded their investment advisory clients through false and misleading subscription solicitation material to the National Portfolio Reporter, a predecessor publication to the Profit Report, and had sold unregistered securities and violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws in connection with the sale of such securities. The initial decision is currently pending review by the Commission.

Suter has also been indicted by a Federal grand jury for mail fraud in August 1982 in connection with the sale of rare coins through the mail. A trial in that case is currently pending in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois. (SEC v. Richard W. Suter and Richard W. Suter d/b/a National Investment Publishing Co., N.D. ILL., Civil No. 81 C 3865). (LR-9900)

COURT ORDERS DEFENDANTS TO REMIT OVER $2 MILLION TO DATA ACCESS SYSTEMS, INC.

The Commission announced that on February 17 the Honorable Stanley S. Brotman, U.S. District Court Judge for the District of New Jersey, entered an Opinion and Order in Securities and Exchange Commission v. Data Access Systems, Inc. et al. (U.S.D.C., District of New Jersey, Civil Action No. 81-3362) requiring defendants Gerald R. Cicconi and Peter V. DiGuilio to comply with one of the recommendations of a court appointed Special Agent that they forthwith remit to Data Access Systems, Inc. (DASI) a total of $2,031,126.

These defendants were ordered by the Court to pay this amount to DASI following the Court's rejection of their objections to a Special Agent's recommendation based upon the Special Agent's determination that such funds were taken from DASI as part of an "intricate and covert scheme to siphon [money]" from the company. The Special Agent was appointed by the Court pursuant to a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction entered on October 29, 1981, in an action brought by the Commission. These defendants consented to the entry of the Final Judgment, without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint, and to the appointment of the Special Agent whose function was to investigate a variety of transactions which had been entered into by DASI and to make appropriate recommendations that would be binding upon these defendants, unless the Court relieved the defendants of such obligation.

In its Order the Court further directed that DASI pursue settlement negotiations with Cicconi and DiGuilio with respect to the interest and tax benefits lost to DASI as a consequence of the misappropriation of the $2,031,126. The Court also stated in its opinion that as to the remaining recommendations of the Special Agent against certain of the defendants (which, including those at issue here total in excess of $9 million) the Court will issue subsequent decisions on these recommendations and the objections thereto. (For further information see Litigation Release No. 9487, October 29, 1981) (SEC v. Data Access Systems, Inc., et al., U.S.D.C., District of New Jersey, Civil Action No. 81-3362). (LR-9901)
