ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

---

ROBERT D. PETERSON, OTHERS CITED

Public administrative proceedings have been instituted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Channer-Newman Securities Company, a registered broker-dealer based in Chicago, Illinois and engaged primarily in the trading and underwriting of municipal securities; Frederick W. Channer, the firm's chief operating officer; Michael J. Wyvill, a former president and treasurer of Channer-Newman; and Robert D. Peterson, an account executive formerly employed at Channer-Newman.

The Order for Proceedings alleges, among other things, that Peterson wilfully violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws, including prohibitions against fraud found in the rules of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (MSRB) adopted pursuant to the Exchange Act, in connection with trading in municipal securities during the period December 1978 through December 31, 1979. In addition to asserting Peterson's violations of antifraud strictures, the Order also alleges that he aided and abetted violations of Commission and MSRB rules relating to books and records, customer confirmations and required deposits in a "Special Reserve Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers."

Channer, Wyvill and Channer-Newman are charged with a failure reasonably to supervise Peterson with a view toward preventing his violations as alleged in the Order. Without admitting or denying the allegations, Channer, Wyvill and Channer-Newman submitted Offers of Settlement accepted by the Commission in which they consented to findings that they failed reasonably to supervise Peterson and to sanctions in which each respondent was censured. Channer-Newman also consented to undertakings relating to its procedures respecting extension of settlement date and cancellation of orders.

A hearing will be scheduled to take evidence on the allegations against the remaining respondent, Robert D. Peterson. The purpose of the hearing is to determine whether or not the allegations against Peterson are true, and if so, what if any remedial action is necessary in the public interest. (Rel. 34-19764 and 34-19765)

NORTHRIDGE SECURITIES, INC., OTHERS CITED

Administrative proceedings have been ordered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 involving Northridge Securities, Inc., a registered broker-dealer of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Von K. Jenson and Leo L. Gandley. The proceedings are based on alleged violations of the net capital, customer protection, books and records, reporting, and early warning provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These same violations were the basis for a civil injunctive action filed by the Commission [SEC v. Northridge Securities, Inc., USDC Utah, Civil Action No. C-82-0987A] on October 8, 1982.

Simultaneously with the institution of proceedings, the Commission accepted Offers of Settlement from the three respondents. These Offers of Settlement provide for a suspension of Gandley from association with any broker or dealer for a period of nine months; a bar of Jenson from association with any broker or dealer, provided that, after a period of one year and one day, he may apply to become reassociated; and a revocation of the broker-dealer registration of Northridge. (Rel. 34-19770)

HOMESTEAD OIL COMPANY, OTHERS OTHERS ENJOINED

The Fort Worth Regional Office announced that on May 13 the Honorable Robert W. Porter of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, issued an Order of Preliminary Injunction against Homestead Oil Company, Inc., a publicly-held reporting company located in Dallas, Texas, Kenneth E. Wilson of Terrell, Texas, and Larry B. Bach of Forney, Texas. The Order preliminarily enjoins the defendants from further violations and aiding and abetting violations of Sections 12(g) and 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 12b-20, 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder. Each of the defendants consented to the entry of the Order without admitting or denying the allegations set forth in the Commission's complaint which was filed on April 29.

The Order requires that Homestead file an annual report for its fiscal year ended June 30, 1982, and quarterly reports for the quarters ended March 31, 1982, September 30, 1982, December 31, 1982 and March 31, 1983. In addition, the Order requires Wilson and Bach to file beneficial ownership reports. (SEC v. Homestead Oil Company, Inc., et al., U.S.D.C. ND/TX/DALLAS DIV., CA 3-83-0730-F). (LR-10009)

ORMONT DRUG & CHEMICAL CO., INC. ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE

The Commission announced that on May 18 the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia entered an Order to Show Cause why Ormont Drug & Chemical Co., Inc. and Irving Brand, Ormont's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, should not be held in civil contempt for failure to comply with the Default Judgment and Permanent Injunction entered against Ormont on December 22, 1982. The Court entered the Default Judgment and Permanent Injunction against Ormont for failure to comply with the reporting provisions of Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Court ordered Ormont to file all of its delinquent reports not later than January 10, 1983, and permanently enjoined Ormont, and its officers and directors, from future reporting violations. To date Ormont has not filed any of its delinquent reports as ordered by the Court, and it has also failed to file its annual report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1982, which was due on March 31, 1983. A civil contempt proceeding is scheduled for June 7, 1983. (SEC v. Ormont Drug & Chemical Co., Inc., C.A. No. 82-1685, D.D.C.). (LR-10011)
