RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

DEFINITIONS CONCERNING MULTI-BANK COMMON TRUST FUNDS PROPOSED

The Commission has issued a proposal to define, by rules, the term "common trust fund" so as to include certain common trust funds (multi-bank common trust funds) maintained by a bank in a bank holding company for itself and other bank members of the same holding company. The proposed rules would have the effect of treating such multi-bank common trust funds, and interests or participations therein, in the same manner as traditional single bank common trust funds, and interests in them, are currently treated under the securities laws. All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on the proposed rules in triplicate to George A. Fitzsimmons, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 500 North Capitol Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549 on or before November 30, 1977, and should refer to File No. S7-723. All submissions will be made available for public inspection. (Rel. 33-5875)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

MITCHELL SPEAIRS CO. AND MITCHELL SPEAIRS

The Commission has entered an order revoking the registration of Mitchell Speairs Co. and suspending Mitchell Speairs from association with any broker or dealer for a period of 30 days. The Commission further ordered that Mitchell Speairs, following the suspension, shall be associated with brokers or dealers only in a supervised capacity. In addition, the Commission found that Mitchell Speairs Co. and Mitchell Speairs wilfully violated the recordkeeping provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Commission's action was taken pursuant to an offer of settlement submitted by the respondents in which, without admitting or denying the allegations in the order for proceedings, they consented to the findings and sanctions. (Rel. 34-14055)

COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

PERSONNEL MOVES AND FUNCTIONAL REORGANIZATION ANNOUNCED FOR DIVISION OF MARKET REGULATION

Market Regulation Director Andrew M. Klein announced today a series of key personnel moves and functional reorganizations. Mr. Klein has appointed Sheldon Rappaport (subject to Civil Service Commission approval) to the new position of Deputy Director of the Division. Mr. Rappaport, formerly Associate Director in charge of the Office of Self-Regulatory Oversight, will share overall responsibility for the Division's work. Mr. Rappaport, who joined the Commission's staff in 1961 to work on the Special Study of the Securities Markets, received his B.A. degree from Temple University and his L.L.B. degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

Named to the position of Associate Director in charge of the Office of Self-Regulatory Oversight (also subject to Civil Service Commission approval) was Ms. Kathryn B. McGrath. Ms. McGrath, a member of the Commission's staff since 1970, has been Associate General Counsel. She received her A.B. degree from Mt. Holyoke College and her J.D. degree from the Georgetown University Law Center.

It was announced today that responsibility for municipal securities regulation has been reassigned from the Office of Legal Policy and Municipal Securities, to the Office of Self-Regulatory Oversight. The transfer recognizes completion of the initial phase of establishing a regulatory program for municipal securities, and is designed to free the Chief Counsel of the Division from exclusive responsibility for specific regulatory programs to devote his office's full efforts to Division legal policy. It was further announced that the Office of Legal Policy and Municipal Securities has been reconstituted as the Office of the Chief Counsel, and Mr. Roger D. Blanc has been appointed as head of that office. Mr. Blanc received his B.A. degree from Yale University and his J.D. degree from the Columbia University School of Law, and has been a member of the Commission's staff since 1974.

Also today, Mr. Klein announced the appointment of Mr. Mark Fitterman as Special Counsel to the Director, to assist in carrying out special project assignments.
