AMENDMENTS TO RULES 2a-7, 12d3-1 AND NEW RULE 2a41-1 PROPOSED FOR COMMENT

The Commission proposed for public comment amendments to Rule 2a-7 under the Investment Company Act of 1940, which would: (1) permit money market funds relying on the Rule to acquire put options for liquidity purposes and to treat variable and floating rate debt securities with periodic demand features as short-term securities under certain conditions; (2) reduce the responsibilities which the present rule assigns to money market fund boards of directors respecting the acquisition and disposition of debt securities that are subject to demand features; and (3) allow money market funds to acquire portfolio debt securities in reliance on a high quality rating only if the rating is assigned by a nationally recognized statistical rating organization that is unaffiliated with the issuer or any insurer, guarantor or provider of credit support for the securities.

The Commission also proposed amendments to Rule 12d3-1 under the Investment Company Act that would permit money market funds to acquire liquidity puts from persons engaged in securities related activities under certain conditions. Finally, the Commission proposed Rule 2a41-1 under the Investment Company Act which would provide exemptive relief to allow investment companies, under certain conditions, to assign a fair value of zero to standby commitment put options. (Rel. IC-14607)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

CLETUS MARION HODGE, OTHERS ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on June 7 Judge Julia Smith Gibbons, U.S. District Court for the Western District of Tennessee, entered Orders of Permanent Injunction against Cletus Marion Hodge, of Germantown, Tennessee, and Patrick Michael and William Edward Shelton, IV, both of Memphis, Tennessee, and on May 21 against A.V. McDowell, of Memphis, prohibiting further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The defendants consented to the orders while neither admitting nor denying the complaint's allegations, except as previously found by the trial court and the appellate court.

The October 26, 1979 complaint alleged that the defendants sold standby with pair-off investments, a security in which G. Weeks Securities, Inc. (Weeks), a government securities broker-dealer with whom Hodge, Michael and Shelton were associated, purportedly sold Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA) securities to a customer for future delivery and simultaneously agreed to repurchase the same securities on the same future date at a higher price coupled with a guarantee by Weeks.

In previous administrative proceedings, Hodge and Michael were barred, and Shelton was suspended for six months, from association with any broker or dealer. (SEC v. G. Weeks Securities, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. C79-2711-G, WDTN). (LR-10808)

ROCKWELL OIL COMPANY ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on June 20 the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against Rockwell Oil Company of Saginaw, Texas. The Judgment restrained and enjoined Rockwell from failing to file timely periodic reports and Notifications of Late Filing.

In its May 13 complaint, the Commission alleged that Rockwell, as part of a continuing course of violative conduct extending over several years, failed to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for its fiscal year ended December 31, 1984. Rockwell, consenting to the Court's Judgment, admitted that it had filed late three Annual Reports on Form 10-K, eight Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and failed to file 11 Notifications of Late Filing on Form 12b-25. (SEC v. Rockwell Oil Company, USDC DC, Civil Action No. 85-1528). (LR-10809)
