ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

JAMES L. RAPHOLZ, JR., d/b/a ECONOMIC ADVICE, SUSPENDED

The Commission instituted public administrative proceedings under the Investment Advisers and Investment Company Acts of 1940 against James L. Rapholz, Jr. and James L. Rapholz, Jr., doing business as Economic Advice, a registered Pompano Beach, Florida investment adviser. The Commission simultaneously accepted Rapholz' Offer of Settlement whereby he, without admitting or denying, consented to an Order finding that he wilfully violated Section 5(a)(1) of the Securities Act.

The Order contained findings that from May 1983 through March 1984, Rapholz sold $827,000 worth of securities in a closed-end investment company to more than 200 investors throughout the United States, prior to its registration becoming effective. Investor checks were not cashed by Rapholz and were returned to investors prior to the Commission instituting administrative proceedings.

Rapholz consented to an Order suspending his registration as an investment adviser for 14 days and prohibiting him from acting as an employee, officer, director or member of an advisory board for a registered investment company for 14 days. In addition, Rapholz agreed to an undertaking whereby he will send written notification of the Commission's Order and the sanction imposed on him to all investors who had mailed checks to purchase securities in the investment company. (Rel. IA-922)

PORTLAND, OREGON BROKER-DEALER REVOKED; PRESIDENT BARRED FROM SUPERVISION

The Commission entered an Order simultaneously instituting administrative proceedings and imposing remedial sanctions against June S. Jones Co., a Portland, Oregon broker-dealer, and June Sheldon Jones, Jr., its president. The firm's registration with the Commission as a broker-dealer was revoked and Jones was barred from association with any broker or dealer in a supervisory or proprietary capacity. (Rel. 34-21214)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

RICHARD BLAKE DISGORGES MONEY TO GLASGOW LODE CORPORATION RECEIVER

The Atlanta Regional Office and the Miami Branch Office announced that on August 1 Judge Sidney M. Aronovitz, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, issued an Order of Disgorgement against Richard R. Blake, doing business as Glasgow Lode, and Glasgow Lode Corporation (GLC), both of Fairplay, Colorado. The Order requires the defendants to disgorge $7,000 to Marsha L. Lyons, Esquire, the Receiver for GLC. Blake and GLC consented to the Order of Disgorgement.

On September 22, 1983, the defendants consented to a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief, which required them to disgorge an amount to be determined at the later hearing.

The Commission's complaint alleged that the defendants were selling unregistered securities in the form of investment contracts involving the sale of piles of mineral aggregate coupled with an agreement to process the aggregate into gold and silver.

Over 125 investors throughout the United States invested in excess of $1 million in the Glasgow Lode Mineral Aggregate Program. The remaining defendants, Alfred I. Gellman of Miami Beach, Florida and Charles Gellman of Plantation, Florida, continue to litigate the issue of disgorgement. (SEC v. Colorado Development Corporation, et al., SD FL, Civil Action No. 83-2202-CIV-SMA). (LR-10487)

HERSCHELL SAVILLE ORDERED TO PAY DISGORGEMENT

The Atlanta Regional Office and the Miami Branch Office announced that on August 2 Judge Alcee L. Hastings, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida, issued an Order of Disgorgement against Herschell Saville, also known as Herb Sands of Miami, Florida. The Order requires Saville to disgorge $100,265 to Robert W. Pearce, Esquire, the Receiver for Sunco Resource & Energy Ltd., Inc. The Order was entered by the Court after conducting an evidentiary hearing on July 31.

On July 19, the Court entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief enjoining Saville from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws. Saville consented to the Final Judgment without admitting or denying any of the facts alleged in the complaint.

The Commission alleged that Saville and others raised approximately $2.5 million by selling fractional undivided interests in oil and gas rights to approximately 125 investors throughout the United States. (SEC v. Sunco Resource & Energy Ltd., Inc., 84-0618 - Hastings, SD FL, Aug. 2, 1984) (order of disgorgement). (LR-10491)
