RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

ISSUER ODD-LOT TENDER OFFERS

On April 16, the Securities and Exchange Commission authorized the publication of a release proposing an amendment to Rule 13e-4 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). Rule 13e-4 governs cash tender offers and exchange offers by issuers for their equity securities. The proposed amendment would remove the rule's requirement that issuer tender offers made to odd-lot holders specify a record date of share ownership for eligibility to tender into the offer. The amendment would enable issuers to conduct extended odd-lot tender offers for their equity securities. The release also proposes that class exemptions from Rules 10b-6 and 10b-13 under the Exchange Act be issued to facilitate issuer odd-lot tender offers.

Comments on the proposals should be submitted in triplicate to Jonathan G. Katz, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Stop 6-9, Washington, D.C. 20549, on or before 30 days from the date of publication in the Federal Register, and should reference File No. S7-12-96. Comments also may be submitted electronically at the following E-mail address: rule-comments@sec.gov, and should reference the file number on the subject line of the E-mail.

For further information, contact the Office of Risk Management and Control at (202) 942-0772, Division of Market Regulation, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549. (Rel. Nos. 33-7283; 34-37132)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

CEASE AND DESIST AND RULE 102(e) ORDER ENTERED AGAINST CHARLES WALLIN, CPA

In a simultaneously instituted and settled administrative proceeding, the Commission issued an order: (1) requiring Charles W. Wallin, CPA (Wallin) to cease and desist violating and from causing any future violation of Sections 10(b) and 13(b)(5) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) and Rules 10b-5, 13b2-1 and 13b2-2; (2) requiring Wallin to cease and desist causing violations and causing any future violation of Sections 13(a), 13(b)(2)(A) and 13(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act and Rules 13a-1, 13a-13 and 12b-20; and (3) denying Wallin the privilege of appearing or practicing before the Commission in the capacity of an independent public accountant in accordance with Rule 102(e) of the Commission's Rules of Practice. The order provides that, after five years, Wallin may reapply to resume appearing or practicing before the Commission.

In the order, the Commission found that Wallin, during 1989 and 1990, while he was the chief financial officer of a wholly owned subsidiary of Centuri, Inc.: (1) engaged in fraudulent accounting practices that resulted in materially false and misleading statements in Centuri's periodic reports filed with the Commission in 1990; (2) failed to implement a system of internal controls and falsified books, records and accounts; (3) lied to Centuri's auditors; and (4) caused Centuri to keep inaccurate books and records.

Wallin, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, consented to the issuance of the Order. (Rel. 34-37127; AAE Rel. 774)

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER ENTERED AGAINST CENTURI, INC.

In a simultaneously instituted and settled administrative proceeding under Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act), the Commission issued an order requiring Centuri, Inc. (Centuri) to cease and desist from violating and future violations of Sections 13(a), 13(b)(2)(A) and 13(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act and Rules 13a-1, 13a-13 and 12b-20 thereunder.

In the order, the Commission found that Centuri filed materially inaccurate periodic reports with the Commission in 1990, failed to keep accurate books and records, and failed to devise and maintain internal controls during 1989 and 1990. In its periodic reports and on its books and records, Centuri materially overstated its net income and accounts receivable and materially understated its accounts payable and accrued liabilities. These misstatements were caused by improper accounting practices at Centuri's wholly owned subsidiary, Outdoor Sports Headquarters, Inc. Centuri also failed to file periodic reports with the Commission in 1991, 1992, 1993 and 1994. Centuri, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, consented to the issuance of the Order. (Rel. 34-37128; AAE Rel. 775)

COMMISSION BARS MERRILL LYNCH STOCKBROKER

The Commission today announced the entry of an Order barring Linda J. Bustin (Bustin) from association with any broker, dealer, municipal securities dealer, investment adviser or investment company. Bustin, a resident of Stoneham, Massachusetts, was employed as a registered representative at the Burlington branch office of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated (Merrill Lynch) from September 1979 to March 1993. Bustin consented to the Order.

According to the Order, on November 15, 1993, Bustin pleaded guilty to federal mail fraud charges. The charges alleged that while employed by Merrill Lynch, Bustin engaged in various schemes to defraud her brokerage customers of over $300,000. Those schemes consisted of changing customers' mailing addresses to a post office box, transferring customer funds into a bogus account at Merrill Lynch, and stealing checks from the mail room at the branch office. On February 24, 1994, Bustin was sentenced to 18 months in prison and ordered to pay restitution of $314,666 and a special assessment of $1,200. (Rel. 34-37129)

DEFAULT JUDGMENT ENTERED IN WIRELESS CABLE CASE

The Commission announced that on April 10 the Honorable Nicholas H. Politan of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey entered a Default Judgment against defendants Future Vision Direct Marketing, Inc. Global Wireless, Worldwide Wireless, Caracas Wireless Communication, L.P., Global Communications Holding Corp. and S & G Management, Inc. The Default Judgment permanently enjoins the six defendants from future violations of the antifraud and registration provisions of the federal securities laws, permanently enjoins Future Vision from future violations of the broker-dealer registration provisions of the Exchange Act; and orders the six defendants to disgorge, jointly and severally, $ 3.3 million plus pre-judgment interest.

This Commission's complaint alleged that the defendants and four individuals were participants in an ongoing fraudulent scheme involving the sale of unregistered securities in the form of "membership interests" in Global and Worldwide, so-called limited liability companies formed to fund wireless cable television operations in Venezuela. The Commission alleged that the defendants had sold, through Future Vision, approximately $3 million of these "membership interests." The Commission also alleged that the defendants had fraudulently sold $300,000 in limited partnership interests. [SEC v. Future Vision Direct Marketing, Inc., et al., USDC, D.N.J., Civil Action No. 94-4806] (LR-14884)

THREE MORE SETTLEMENTS ENTERED IN ACTION FOR ILLEGAL TRADING IN SECURITIES OF COLORADO PRIME CORP. AND DEBOTO INC.

The Commission announced today that the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered final judgments against defendants Ihor G. Kupchynsky, Roman Kupchynsky and Kim Bubolo permanently enjoining each of them from future violations of Sections 10(b) and 14(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5 and 14e-3 thereunder. The final judgments order a total of $48,440.50 in disgorgement plus prejudgment interest, of which defendants Ihor Kupchynsky and Kim Bubolo are jointly and severally liable for $8,175.39. The final judgments also order defendants Ihor Kupchynsky and Kim Bubolo to pay civil penalties totaling $6,627.09 under the Insider Trading and Securities Fraud Enforcement

Act of 1988. These defendants each consented to the entry of the final judgment against him or her without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, as amended. The final judgments were entered by the court on December 10, 1995, and on February 6, and April 1, 1996, respectively. To date in this action, the court has ordered a total of $1,262,928.15 in disgorgement, prejudgment interest and penalties.

Any disgorgement and prejudgment interest paid by defendants is being held by the court for the benefit of persons who submit valid claims arising under the federal securities laws by reason of the conduct alleged against these defendants in the complaint, as amended. Such claims must be submitted within one year after the date of entry of each final judgment. The Commission intends to petition the court to appoint a special claims master to develop a distribution plan.

In this action, the Commission alleges that, on or before June 6, 1989, defendant Ihor Kupchynsky learned of a planned tender offer for Colorado Prime Corp. (Colorado Prime) and communicated that information to, among others, defendant Kim Bubolo. Defendants Ihor Kupchynsky and Kim Bubolo then purchased Colorado Prime securities on or about June 6, 1989, while in possession of this material, nonpublic information. The Commission also alleges that, on or about October 30, 1989, defendant Richard D. Zipes misappropriated material, nonpublic information concerning a planned tender offer for DeSoto, Inc. (DeSoto). Defendant Zipes allegedly communicated that information to defendant Ihor Kupchynsky, who then allegedly tipped, among others, defendants Roman Kupchynsky and Kim Bubolo. While in possession of the misappropriated information, defendants Ihor Kupchynsky, Roman Kupchynsky and Kim Bubolo purchased DeSoto securities prior to public announcement of the tender offer on November 9, 1989.

The litigation is pending as to defendant George Kupchynsky. For further information, see Litigation Release No. 14115 (Jun. 7, 1994) and Litigation Release No. 14738 (Nov. 28, 1995). [SEC v. Felsher, et al., 94 Civ. 4150, LLS, USDC, SDNY] (LR-14885)
