COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

VALERIE CAPRONI, DIRECTOR OF THE COMMISSION'S PACIFIC REGIONAL OFFICE, TO LEAVE THE COMMISSION

Valerie Caproni, Director of the Securities and Exchange Commission's Pacific Regional Office, today announced that she will be leaving her position at the end of July to join the New York law firm Simpson Thacher & Bartlett.

Ms. Caproni, 45, became Regional Director of the Pacific Region in September 1998. As Regional Director, Ms. Caproni oversees Commission offices in Los Angeles and San Francisco and is responsible for the administration of the agency's enforcement and regulatory programs in California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Arizona, Alaska and Hawaii.

Under Ms. Caproni's leadership, the Pacific Region has filed some of the Commission's most significant enforcement actions, including those involving the Emulex internet hoax, financial fraud at McKesson HBOC, Ponzi schemes at Capital Consultants, Pinn Fund and TLC, and a kickback scheme operated by noted investment adviser Alan Bond.

SEC Acting Chairman Laura Unger said, "The ability of the SEC to enforce the securities laws and to protect investors derives from the dedicated efforts of people like Valerie Caproni. She has made a significant contribution to the work of the Commission during her tenure as Regional Director of the Pacific Regional Office. On behalf of the Commission, I thank Valerie for her fine service and wish her well in her new position."

SEC Director of Enforcement Richard Walker said, "Valerie Caproni has played a critical role in the success of the Pacific Region's enforcement and regulatory programs over the past three years. Under her leadership and guidance, the Regional Office has initiated a number of important cases that have made our markets safer for investors. I wish Valerie continued success in her return to private practice."

In announcing her plan to leave the Commission, Ms. Caproni said, "Serving the investing public by being Regional Director of the Commission's west coast operation has been a highlight of my professional life. I have been honored to be a part of the talented and dedicated staff in the Pacific Region. I will always look back to my time with the Commission with enormous fondness and professional satisfaction." (Press Rel. 2001-57)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION DETERMINES IT LACKS JURISDICTION TO REVIEW NASD DECISION TO DENY A MEMBER FIRM AN EXEMPTION FROM THE NASD'S TAPING RULE AND DISMISSES FIRM'S APPLICATION FOR REVIEW

The Commission has concluded that it lacks jurisdiction to review an NASD determination to deny member firm Whitehall Wellington Investments, Inc., of Port Washington New York, an exemption from the requirement that Whitehall establish special supervisory procedures. The requirement at issue is embodied in the NASD's Taping Rule, NASD Conduct Rule 3010(b)(2). The Taping Rule obligates a firm with at least 20 registered persons, like Whitehall, to tape record all telephone conversations with existing and prospective customers for a two-year period, if, within the prior three years, 20% or more of the firm's registered persons have been employed by one of more firms that have been subject to "discipline," as defined in the rule, in connection with sales practices involving securities offers, purchasers, or sales.

The Commission concluded that its recent decision in Joseph Dillon & Co., Inc., Exchange Act Release No. 43523 (Nov. 6, 2000), 73 SEC Docket 2256, determined the result here. In that matter, the Commission held that the NASD's denial of another member firm's request for exemption from the Taping Rule does not fall within any of the four jurisdictional bases for Commission review of a self-regulatory organizations' action that are enumerated in Section 19(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Accordingly, the Commission dismissed Whitehall's application for review of the NASD's order denying Whitehall the exemption. (Rel. 34-44367; File No. 3-10250)
