RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

AUTHORIZATION OF PUBLICATION OF REGULATORY FLEXIBILITY AGENDA

The Commission has authorized the publication of its October 1995 Regulatory Flexibility Act Agenda. The agenda is a general announcement to the public intended to provide advance notice of rulemaking actions. The agenda, which will not be available to the public until its publication, has been submitted by the Commission to the Regulatory Information Service Center for inclusion in the Unified Agenda of Federal Regulations, which is scheduled for publication in the Federal Register in October 1995. Public comments regarding the agenda and the individual agenda entries are due by December 30, 1995. (Rel. 33-7216)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

TRADING SUSPENSION IN THE SECURITIES OF UNITED FIRE TECHNOLOGY, INC.

The Commission announced the suspension of trading in the securities of United Fire Technology, Inc. for a ten day period commencing at 9:30 a.m. EST on September 21, 1995 and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EST on October 4, 1995 due to questions that have been raised about the adequacy and accuracy of statements made by the company in publicly disseminated information, including information regarding the manufacturing capabilities of the company, its financial situation, its stock issuances, and information about the company's product.

Brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, at the termination of the trading suspension period, no broker or dealer may enter a quotation unless and until the broker or dealer has strictly complied with the provisions of Exchange Act Rule 15c2-11. (Rel. 34-36256)

CIVIL ACTION FILED AGAINST GARY HOLMAN ALLEGING FINANCIAL FRAUD

The Commission announced the filing of a complaint on September 20 in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia against Gary L. Holman, former president and chief executive officer of Homestead Holding Corporation, a now defunct savings and loan. The complaint alleges that Holman engaged in fraud and reporting violations under the federal securities laws.

The complaint alleges that in 1990, Holman caused Homestead to file annual and quarterly reports with the Commission containing false financial information. The financial statements contained in these reports failed to include adequate provisions for probable losses in Homestead's loan portfolio, causing Homestead's income reported therein to be materially overstated. For the year ended December 31, 1989, Homestead reported income before taxes of $3.4 million. This figure was overstated by approximately $2.7 million, as it omitted provisions for probable and estimable losses within Homestead's loan portfolio.

The complaint seeks a permanent injunction, enjoining Holman from future violations of the federal securities law provisions with which he has been charged; and an order barring Holman from serving as an officer or director of a public company in the future. [SEC v. Gary Holman, USDC, D.D.C., Civil Action No. 95-CV-1801] (LR-14643; AAE Rel. 713)

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST ROBERT COCHRAN, MICHAEL GARRETT AND RANDALL NELSON

The Commission announced today that it filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma against Robert M. Cochran, Michael B. Garrett and Randall W. Nelson, formerly employed in the Oklahoma Public Finance Office of Stifel, Nicolaus and Company, Incorporated, a broker-dealer. The complaint alleges that the defendants violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Sections 10(b), and 15B(c)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Rule 10b-5 thereunder and Rule G-17 of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (MSRB). The complaint seeks relief including final judgments of permanent injunction barring future violations of those provisions, imposition of civil penalties, and against defendant Cochran, disgorgement of certain bonuses.

The complaint alleges that from 1989 through 1993, Stifel received millions of dollars in undisclosed payments from third parties that sold or brokered investments to municipal issuers. According to the complaint, the defendants had a duty to disclose conflicts of interest while advising the issuers about the purchase of the investments. The defendants breached their duty and defrauded the issuers in failing to disclose that Stifel received the payments from the investment providers or investment brokers. The complaint further alleges that the defendants defrauded investors by failing to disclose the payments to participants in the bond issues, thereby depriving investors of information material to an assessment of the tax exempt status of the bonds.

Last month the Commission filed a related action against the defendants' former employer, Stifel. For further information see LR-14587, August 3, 1995.

Also on September 20, the United States Attorney for the Western District of Oklahoma announced that a federal grand jury indicted Cochran and Garrett on charges relating to the conduct alleged in the complaint. The Commission's investigation continues as to the conduct of other entities and individuals involved in this matter. [SEC v. Robert M. Cochran, Michael B. Garrett and Randall W. Nelson, USDC, WD Oklahoma, Civil Action No. 95-1477T] (LR-14644)

JAMIE SPANGLER AND ROBERT MERRIFIELD NAMED IN CIVIL INJUNCTIVE ACTION

The Commission announced today the filing of complaint in the United States District Court for the Western District of New York against Jamie Charles Spangler of Buffalo, New York, and Robert Albert Merrifield of East Amherst, New York, alleging violations of the antifraud provisions of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5. The complaint alleges that from February 1991 through June 1992, Spangler and Merrifield solicited investment in three companies: First Legal and Financial Services Ltd.; Prime Holdings of New York, Inc.; and Fedelta gli Immobili la Compagniad' Investimento, Ltd. Spangler and Merrifield made these solicitations through a series of misrepresentations and omissions, and collectively raised $483,339.34 from twenty-four investors. Spangler and Merrifield misappropriated and diverted more than $180,000 of the funds to undisclosed purposes and for their own benefit.

The complaint seeks permanent injunctions against future violations; disgorgement of an amount equal to the benefits of defendants' violative conduct, plus prejudgment interest; and civil penalties. [SEC v. Jamie Charles Spangler and Robert Albert Merrifield, 95 Civ. 814A, WDNY] (LR-14645)
