NRC RECEIVES AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN PERFORMANCE AND ACCOUNTABILITY REPORTING

For the sixth consecutive year, the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission received a prestigious award recognizing the quality of its annual performance and accountability reporting. The Association of Government Accountants (AGA) awarded NRC the Certificate of Excellence in Accountability Reporting (CEAR) for its outstanding efforts in preparing the agency's Performance and Accountability Report for Fiscal Year 2006.

The Certificate of Excellence is the highest form of recognition in federal government management reporting. It rewards excellence in an agency's reporting of financial and performance results. In its award letter, AGA commended the NRC for preparing an informative, easy-to-read report.

"We are honored to receive this award recognizing the agency's commitment to excellence," NRC Acting Chief Financial Officer Peter J. Rabideau said. "This clear, informative report provided to the public about the NRC's performance and how the NRC conducts its programs is the result of the dedication and hard work of the agency's staff."

NRC is one of 11 federal agencies receiving the AGA Certificate of Excellence in Accountability Reporting award during a ceremony May 23 at the National Press Club.
