

John Stantial

John Stantial is Director of Financial Reporting for United Technologies Corporation, a $40+ billion conglomerate whose businesses include Carrier heating and air conditioning, Otis Elevators, Pratt & Whitney engines, Sikorsky helicopters, Hamilton Sundstrand aerospace systems and UTC Fire & Security Systems. His department is responsible for all statutory filings, including XBRL furnishings, government reports, annual reports and all financial accounting and reporting policies of United Technologies Corporation. John has over 20 years of combined public and private financial experience including previous positions as a Chief Financial Officer of an aerospace manufacturer, Vice President of a Heavy and Highway Contractor, Director of Finance for a cell tower manufacturer and Controller of an aerospace business within the Czech Republic. John graduated from the University of Massachusetts with a BBA.