Exclusive of routine immigration cases in the five districts bordering on Mexico, there was a decrease of less than one per cent in cases filed, and an increase of slightly over five and a half per cent in cases terminated.

A large increase took place in collections which amounted to $27,470,493.56, an increase of approximately 30% over the preceding year.

CRIMINAL CASES AND MATTERS CLOSED DURING FISCAL YEAR 1955:

United States Attorneys and their staffs closed 39,226 criminal cases involving 48,827 defendants; and 60,779 complaints involving 78,124 defendants. 29,930 cases were Terminated with guilty pleas, or 76.3 of the total cases closed. A total of 3,351 defendants in 2,412 cases were found guilty after a jury or court trial. By obtaining pleas of guilty United States Attorneys saved the government a great deal of expense and time. With respect to the termination of criminal cases by plea, reference is made to a remark of the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in which he pointed out to the subcommittee on appropriations for the House of Representatives that savings in trial and court costs resulting from a plea amount to $2,873.86 per case.¹ Based on 29,930 cases so closed the estimated savings to the government would amount to $86,014,629.80.

Of the 60,779 complaints closed 50,879 involving 65,734 defendants were by declination of prosecution. Chart 9 gives a comparison of the number of cases closed for fiscal years 1950 to 1955. Table 3 B in the Appendix gives a breakdown by district of the method of disposition of criminal cases and defendants.

Of the civil cases filed the United States was plaintiff in 14,213 involving $172,606,068. Two categories, namely 5,558 negotiable instrument suits for $10,138,791 and 2,677 veterans' suits for $8,276,456 made up over half of the total.

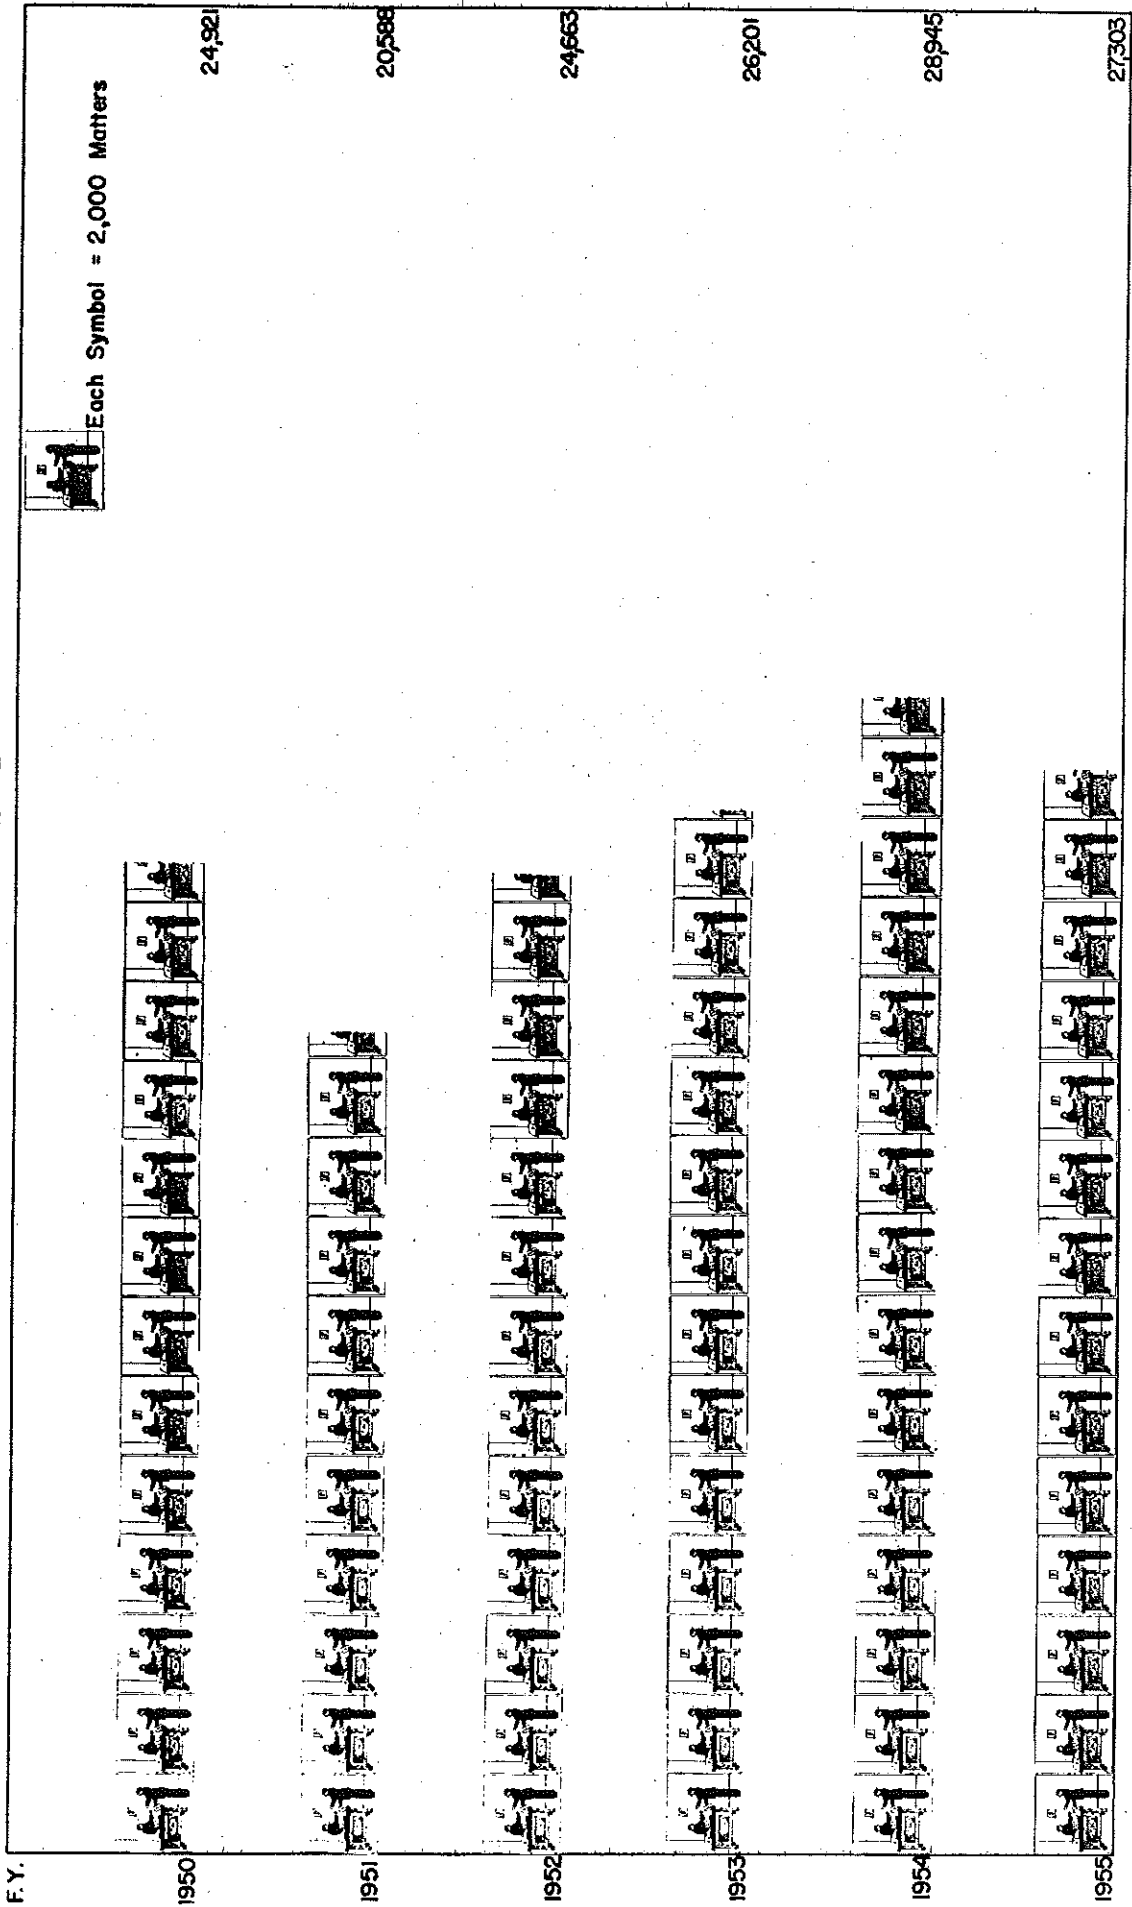

Cases in which the United States was designated as defendant amounted to 3,967 with $61,738,605 involved. Of this amount, $40,203,208 is indicated in 891 Tort Actions filed against the government during the past year.

CIVIL CASES AND MATTERS CLOSED:

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955, 20,519 civil suits were terminated, an increase of 9.15 per cent over the 18,799 terminated during the previous fiscal year.

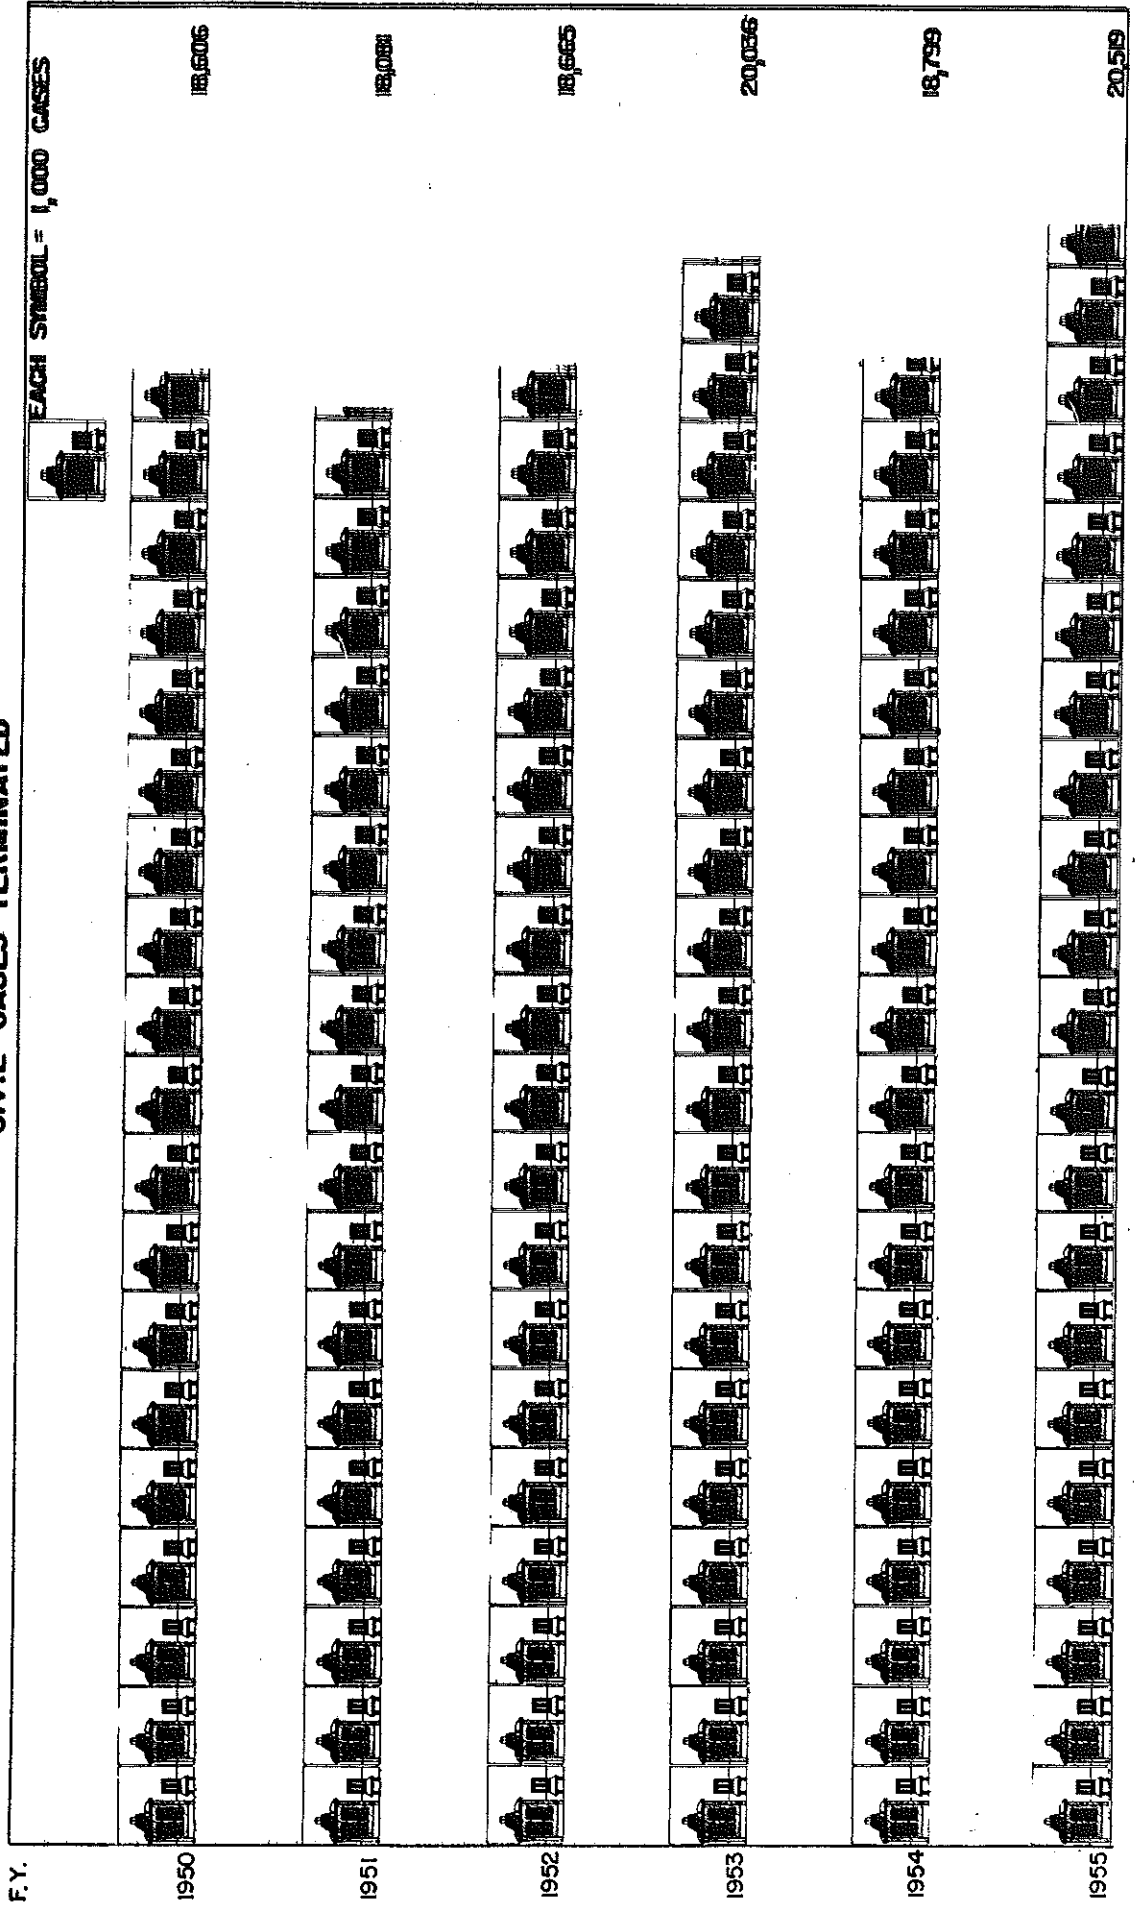

As Chart 17 indicates this is the largest number of cases terminated for the past six fiscal years.

As in the case of civil suits filed, the largest groups, according to type in suits terminated, were Negotiable Instrument cases with 5,369 and Veterans' Matters 2,493. The following table will give a breakdown of cases terminated according to major cause of action.

COLLECTIONS

Increasing stress is being placed on the importance of the collection of monies owed the government. United States Attorneys and their staffs collected $27,470,493.56 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955. This total is approximately three times greater than the amount appropriated for the United States Attorneys offices, therefore, for every dollar appropriated, almost three dollars was collected. Expenditures increased from $7,913,737.64 in fiscal year 1954 to $9,266,979.89 for fiscal year 1955 and the average amount collected for each dollar expended increased from $2.68 to about three dollars.

It is worthy of note that the largest increase in collections occurred during the last six months of the fiscal year and in collections without actual suit or prosecution. Where $10,162,295.90 was collected in this manner during 1954, $16,875,586.23 was collected during 1955. This is an increase of 66.1 per cent over the preceding year. Chart 18 depicts amounts collected as compared with amounts appropriated for fiscal year 1950 through 1955 inclusive. The Financial Summary table in the Appendix will show amounts collected by district as well as amounts imposed in fines, judgments etc.

PERSONNEL AND EXPENDITURES

An average of 1,462 employees were employed in United States Attorneys' offices, and $9,279,130 appropriated for their activities. During the year, 293 employees were appointed and 270 separated, representing a net gain of 23 employees.

The following table furnishes a breakdown of expenditures according to objective classification.

Objective Classification	Amount
Personal Services	$ 8,159,260.26
Travel	203,531.74
Transportation of Things	10,096.00

Equipment	100,000.63
All other Expenditures	43,668.57
Total	$ 9,266,979.89

Based on a case load of 89,723 cases, the average cost per case handled was $103.28. Comparing appropriations with collections, it will be noted on chart 18 that for every dollar appropriated, United States Attorneys collected approximately three, thus, more than "paying their way" in Fiscal Year 1955.
