Subject: ACRP Report 65 Regional Presentation Events

The Airport Cooperative Research Program is currently disseminating ACRP Report 65 - Guidebook for Airport Irregular Operations Contingency Planning and plans to hold a series of regional presentation events to familiarize airports with the contingency planning process, provide initial training, and promote in-depth discussions among key operational stakeholders in each region. These sessions began in April and will continue through July. They are tailored for the airports in each region. The program was developed through ACRP in collaboration with the FAA, AAEA, ACI-NA, and A4A.
