Docket No. 9317

ORDER EXTENDING ONE YEAR
DEADLINE FOR FILING THE INITIAL DECISION

Commission Rule 3.51(a) requires that initial decisions be filed within one year following the issuance of a complaint, but allows the Administrative Law Judge to extend the one year deadline by an additional period of up to sixty days, upon a finding of extraordinary circumstances. 16 C.F.R. § 3.51(a). Such extension, upon its expiration, may be continued for additional consecutive periods of up to sixty days, provided that each additional period is based upon a finding by the Administrative Law Judge that extraordinary circumstances are still present. 16 C.F.R. § 3.51(a).

The Complaint in this matter was issued on June 15, 2004. By Order dated January 12, 2005, this case was stayed “through entry of a formal sentence in the federal court proceeding” in the case of United States v. Vincent Chhabra and Chhabra Group, LLC, et al., Criminal No. 03-530-A, (E.D. Va.).

By Orders dated June 23, 2005 and August 15, 2005, extraordinary circumstances were found to exist for extending the deadline for issuing the Initial Decision because the proceeding in this matter remained stayed and there had been no trial. The proceeding remains stayed and there has been no trial. Accordingly, extraordinary circumstances continue to exist.

The one year deadline is hereby extended from October 14, 2005, by an additional period of sixty days, extending the deadline for filing the Initial Decision in this case to December 15, 2005.

D. Michael Chappell
Administrative Law Judge
