

ENFORCEMENT PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Arthur Herbert, Assistant Director
Teresa Ficareta, Deputy Assistant Director

FIREARMS & EXPLOSIVES INDUSTRY DIVISION

Chad Yoder, Chief
Debra Satkowiak, Deputy Chief
(202) 648-7090

EXPLOSIVES INDUSTRY PROGRAMS BRANCH

William J. Miller, Chief
(202) 648-7120

- Develop and provide guidance to ATF field operations on implementation and enforcement of the explosives regulations and programs.
- Responsible for explosives newsletters, rulemakings, rulings, variances, regulation determinations, explosive classifications, and exemptions.
- Liaison with explosive industry associations and members via email, phone, industry seminars, training presentations for industry symposiums, & workshops.
- Primary point of contact for government agencies requiring assistance in explosive matters.
- Coordinate with Explosives Technology Branch on technical issues including research, evaluation and testing of explosives products.

FIREARMS INDUSTRY PROGRAMS BRANCH

Adam P. Rogers, Chief
(202) 648-7190

- Provide program oversight, support, and guidance in areas relevant to the regulation of the firearms industry to include technical and policy support to ATF.
- Design, implement and assess programs which will protect the public, reduce violent crimes, and prevent terrorism involving firearms.
- Responsible for firearms Newsletter, State Laws and Published Ordinances Guide, and Firearms Regulation Guide; ATF Form 4473 (English and Spanish versions); determinations, variances, and clarifications of firearms regulations from industry members, field personnel, Congress and other government agencies.
- Manage firearms program by initiating and developing regulatory changes through rulemaking.

FIREARMS TECHNOLOGY BRANCH

John R. Spencer, Chief
(304) 616-4300

- Federal technical authority relating to firearms and their classification under Federal law and by regulation.
- Respond to law enforcement agencies' requests to test, evaluate, and provide expert testimony and training on firearms and ammunition.
- Provide technical services and assistance to the firearms industry and the public.