Local Information: Located in southern New Hampshire, the city of Manchester is an up and coming urban center. Its history as a mill town is now the basis of its downtown revitalization, with historic brick mills being renovated into modern restaurants, lively bars and clubs and retail outlets. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, buildings of the Amoskeag Millyard make up what could possibly have been North America's first industrial complex. Constructed along the Merrimack River in the 1830s, the mills helped Manchester become the world's leading producer of textile products by 1900, a title the Queen City kept until the Great Depression.

Registration: Registration will be located outside the conference room on Tuesday at 8:00 a.m. Plan to stop by the registration desk to check in and to pick up your course notebook and other course materials.

Schedule: The Advanced Seminar runs from 8:30 a.m. to approximately 4:30 p.m. Short breaks will be given in the morning and afternoon with a longer break for lunch.

Meals: Light morning fare and an afternoon snack are provided. The cost of this food is included in your registration fee. All other meals are on your own.

Attire for Training Course: Attire for the course is casual. Also, please keep in mind that hotel meeting rooms tend to be cool, so plan to bring a sweater or jacket.

Cancellations: Registrants who cancel at least 14 days prior to the start of the course will receive a full refund minus a 15% processing fee. No refunds will be given for cancellations made fewer than 14 days before the start of the course; however, substitutions may be made at no cost up until three days before the course begins.
