

Kendra Brooks – Domestic Policy Council – Correspondence

The Correspondence Series is arranged alphabetically and includes incoming and outgoing correspondence pertaining to class-size reduction, the School Construction Initiative, the America Reads program, and Educational Excellence for Hispanic Americans. Included in the files are letters to the President from the public and members of Congress regarding funding for the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), school construction/modernization, and in support of connecting schools to the Internet. Also included are letters to Bruce Reed, Director of Domestic Policy, regarding the Meals for Achievement Act and letters to/from John Podesta, Chief of Staff, regarding funding for Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU's). The files contain letters, memos, emails, and background articles.
