Udall Fellows are selected primarily for their scholarly excellence, demonstrated commitment to environmental public policy and/or environmental conflict resolution, and potential to make a significant impact in the real world.

In your letter of recommendation, please address:

- How the applicant has demonstrated scholarly excellence through: challenging coursework; recognition from faculty, institution, and/or national honors/awards; presentations and publications.
- How the applicant has demonstrated sustained commitment to national environmental policy or environmental conflict resolution through one or more of the following: career goal and professional aspirations; teaching experience and/or coursework; research/field work; public and community service.
- How the dissertation topic is relevant, significant and makes an original contribution to the discipline or field of study. Please also comment on: evaluation of project design, quality and scope; feasibility of proposed timeline for completion (applicant should be able to defend the dissertation by June 30, 2013).

Note to recommender: Please return this form, with your letter of recommendation, to the applicant in a sealed envelope, signed across the back flap. Return to the applicant for enclosure with the application or mail to Udall Foundation Fellowship Program, 130 S. Scott Avenue, Tucson, AZ 85701. Letters of recommendation must be received by February 24.
