

TACOM Life Cycle Management Command

Integrated Logistics Support Center (ILSC)

WHO WE ARE

- Life-Cycle Sustainment Manager for all TACOM Life Cycle Management Command (LCMC) managed items.
- Fleet/Weapon Systems Management, Acquisition Logistics, & Sustainment Logistics Provider
- Responsible for sustaining warfighting readiness and managing a large part of DoD's investment in warfighting as integrators of approximately 3,137 weapon systems that form the core of America's ground combat fleet capability.

WHAT WE DO

- Product/Supply Support Integration
- Provide matrix support to 211 PM systems
- Deploy Logistics Assistance Representatives Worldwide
- Provide Foreign Military Sales to our Allies
- Headquarters Support and Integration of TACOM LCMC's Industrial Base
- TACOM LCMC Hub for Mission Tasking Flow, LCMC Knowledge Management, and Readiness Analysis
- Currently support 5 Recapitalization Systems; HMMWV, M1 AIM/SEP, HEMMT, FAASV, M9ACE
- Process 62% of Army requisitions
- Executive Agent for: Army Donations Program, Small Arms, Demilitarization, Army's Logistics Web Portal, Non-Army Managed Items, Supply Discrepancy Reports, Loan Programs, Stock Positioning, Fleet Managers for Ground Combat Support, and Combat Support and Combat Service Support
- AMC Business Team Lead (BTL) for Maintenance Automation Business System.
- Provide workload support to four depots and two arsenals

HOW WE DO IT

- ILSC Enterprise
- 3,605 Strategically Situated Associates
- Acquisition and Logistics Certified Workforce
- Capital Value of TACOM Equipment $81.7B
- 860 Weapon Systems Managers with Fleet Management Oversight
- Over 36,000 Sustainment Items Managed
- Technical Support for over 1M Components
- $3.5B Annual Sales
- Strategically situated to provide optimum capitalization of our existing relationships with local industry and co-located DoD facilities/organizations

(October 2010)

Our Bottom Line:

We touch every service, every day – TACOM LCMC