

Get what you deserve from the country
you serve.

In 1811, our nation promised to care for its older and disabled veterans.

Ever since, AFRH has provided supportive care and shared camaraderie – much like you experienced in your service days.

Back then you invested in this Home via small payroll deductions. Now it's time to get back what you deserve – an affordable retirement among your own.

Fee Structure:

Resident Eligibility

Persons eligible to be residents

Persons eligible to be residents are persons who served as members of the Armed Forces, at least one-half of whose service was not active commissioned service (other than as a warrant officer or limited-duty officer), are eligible to become residents of the Retirement Home:

- Persons who are 60 years of age or over; and were discharged or released from service in the Armed Forces under honorable conditions after 20 or more years of active service.
- Persons who are determined under rules prescribed by the Chief Operating Officer to be incapable of earning a livelihood because of a service-connected disability incurred in the line of duty in the Armed Forces.
- Persons who served in a war theater during a time of war declared by Congress or were eligible for hostile fire special pay and were discharged or released from service in the Armed Forces under honorable conditions; and are determined under rules prescribed by the Chief Operating Officer to be incapable of earning a livelihood because of injuries, disease, or disability.

- Persons who served in a women's component of the Armed Forces before June 12, 1948; and are determined under rules prescribed by the Chief Operating Officer to be eligible for admission because of compelling personal circumstances.

Persons ineligible to be residents

- A person who has been convicted of a felony or is not free of drug, alcohol, or psychiatric problems shall be ineligible to become a resident of the Retirement Home.

Married couples are welcome, but both must be eligible in their own right.
