Richard P. Allen, Tribal President
Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe
Box 283
Flandreau, SD 57028

Dear Mr. Allen:

This letter responds to your request to review and approve the amendment to the tribal gaming ordinance of the Flandreau Santee Sioux (Tribe). The amendment to the ordinance was adopted by the Tribe by Resolution No. 96-41 on June 27, 1996. This letter constitutes such approval under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (IGRA).

Under the IGRA and the regulations of the National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC), the Chairman is directed to review amendments to ordinances with respect to the requirements of the IGRA and the implementing regulations. Thus, the scope of the Chairman's review and approval is limited to the requirements of the IGRA and the NIGC regulations.

Thank you for submitting the amendment to the tribal gaming ordinance of the Flandreau Santee Sioux. The NIGC staff and I continue to look forward to working with you and the Tribe in implementing the IGRA.

Sincerely yours,

Harold A. Monteau
Chairman

Section 17-3-1. Regulation of Gaming. All gaming activity authorized by this ordinance shall be regulated by the tribal commission on gaming.

Section 17-3-2. Gaming Commission. There is hereby created the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribal Commission on Gaming.

1. Qualifications: The Commission shall consist of three (3) citizens of South Dakota who may be members of the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe. Persons selected as members of the Commission shall be of good moral character and shall not have been convicted, in any court of competent jurisdiction, of a felony or crime involving moral turpitude, unless the sentence and/or probation for such conviction shall have been completed ten years prior to the date of appointment.
2. Appointment: There shall be appointed three (3) members of the Commission who shall be appointed by the Executive Committee of the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe. Members shall be appointed to staggered terms consisting of two (2) two-year terms and one (1) one-year term. The initial members shall draw lots to determine which member shall hold each term. Thereafter, each member shall serve the term to which he/she is appointed. No member may serve more than two (2) full consecutive terms. Commission members shall select from among themselves, a Chairperson who shall preside over the meetings of the Commission. Said Chairperson shall serve the same term as he/she would have served had he/she not been selected as Chairperson.

3. Removal: A Commission member may be removed, for cause, by a majority vote of the Tribal Executive Committee. Removals shall be supported by substantive evidence which would be admissible in a court of law. Any member whose removal is sought shall be notified in writing not less than (3) three days prior to a vote on removal. The member may request an informal hearing before the Executive Committee.

Section 17-3-3. Gaming Commission Rule-Making Authority. The Commission may promulgate rules for the orderly transaction and conduct of its business, issuance, suspension and revocation of gaming licenses, review of retail and service contracts, the conduct and operation of all gaming activities, and any other matters necessary to carry out the purposes of this Ordinance. The Commission may also promulgate rules necessary to administer complaints which may be received from the public and conduct such other investigations and inspections into the conduct of the games and the licensees and the maintenance of equipment as the Commission may deem necessary and proper.

1. Promulgation of Rules. Rules shall be promulgated pursuant to Chapter 5, Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribal Commission on Gaming Rules and Regulations.
2. Notices. All regulations or internal rules enacted by the Commission shall be posted in the Tribal Office. An interested party who is affected by a Commission ruling may request a hearing before the Commission and may appeal an adverse ruling to the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribal Court pursuant to Section 17-4-7 of this Ordinance.

Section 17-3-4. Gaming Commission Records. Information and records of the Commission enumerated by this Section are confidential and may not be disclosed except pursuant to a court order. No person may use a subpoena, discovery or other applicable statutes to obtain such information or records. Information and records considered confidential include the following:

1. Tax returns of individual licensees;

2. Applications; credit, medical and security reports of applicants for licenses and other persons seeking or doing business with the Commission;
3. Marketing, financial or sales data, the disclosure of which may be harmful to the competitive position of Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribal gaming, its licensees or persons seeking or doing business with the Commission;
4. Audit work papers, worksheets and auditing procedures used by the Commission, its agents or employees.

Section 17-3-5. Gaming Commission Meetings. The Commission may hold regular and special meetings at such times and places as it may deem convenient, but at least one regular meeting shall be held quarterly. A majority of the appointed members shall constitute a quorum of the commission, and a special meeting may be called by any two members. Each member of the commission shall receive a stipend and expenses for each regular meeting. The stipend and expenses shall be paid from fees and assessments collected by the commission.

1. Purposes for Executive or Closed Sessions. The Commission may hold executive or closed meetings for any of the following purposes:
  - (A) Considering applications for licensing when discussing the background investigations or personal information;
  - (B) Meeting with gaming officials of other jurisdictions, the Attorney General, States Attorney or any law enforcement official relating to possible criminal violations;
  - (C) Consulting with the Executive Secretary, employees and agents of the Commission regarding possible criminal violations;
  - (D) Deliberations after hearing evidence on an informal consultation of a contested case necessary to reach a decision; or
  - (E) Discussing business strategies, marketing or pricing strategies of a licensee or an applicant for a license if public discussion may be harmful to the competitive position of the licensee or applicant for license.

Section 17-3-6. Executive Secretary of Gaming Commission. The Commission shall appoint, and may remove, an Executive Secretary who shall be responsible for the conduct of the Commission's administrative matters. The Commission shall set the annual salary of the Executive Secretary.

Section 17-3-7. Gaming Commission Powers. The powers of the Tribal Commission on Gaming shall be as follows:

1. Issue licenses, oversee and define the contract of the licensees;
2. Inspect and examine all premises where gaming is conducted or gaming devices or equipment are sold or distributed;
3. Inspect, examine, and photocopy all papers, books, and records of applicants and licensees pertaining to such application and/or license.
4. Contract for legal counsel as necessary.
5. Suspend or revoke for cause, any gaming license;
6. Require all primary management personnel and key employees to submit to investigation as required by this Ordinance.
7. Promulgate any rules and regulations as may be necessary for the orderly enforcement of this ordinance.

Section 17-3-8. Posting of Rules. All regulations, ordinances, or internal rules enacted by the Commission shall be posted in the Tribal Office for not less than 90 days prior to final enactment. An interested party who may be affected by a Commission rule or regulation may request a hearing before the Commission to object to said rule or regulation. An adverse ruling by the Commission regarding such rules and regulations may be appealed to the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribal Court.

Section 17-3-9. Appeal of Gaming Commission Actions. Any action of the Commission is subject to appeal to the Tribal Court of the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe. Notice of appeal shall be filed in writing with the Commission and the FSST Clerk of Court, within ten (10) days of receipt of written notice of any action taken by the Commission. Absent such Notice of Appeal, all actions of the Commission are final.

Section 17-3-10. Communication Privilege. Communications between the Commission and the Executive Secretary relating to licensing, discipline of licensees and/or violations by licensees are privileged and confidential if made lawfully and in the course of and in furtherance of the business of the commission on gaming, except pursuant to court order after an in-camera review. The Executive Secretary or any member of the Commission may claim this privilege.

Section 17-3-11. Conflict of Interest. No officer, agent or employee of the Commission may hold a license under this Ordinance if the duties of such office, agency, or employment are in any manner related to the enforcement of gaming rules and regulations. No licensee under this Ordinance may employ any person who is also employed by a law enforcement agency or the Commission.

CHAPTER 4 APPLICATION FOR GAMING LICENSE

Section 17-4-1. Application for a Gaming License. The Commission may approve any application for license which is complete and meets all requirements, provided the applicant is deemed to be a suitable person to hold the license and whether the proposed location is deemed suitable.

1. License required. All persons seeking employment in a gaming establishment to work directly with the gaming portion of said establishment must submit an application for a gaming license.
  - (A) No person shall be granted a gaming license unless he/she shall show that he/she is of good moral character, is at least 21 years of age, and that he/she is a bona fide resident of the State of South Dakota, or if a partnership or corporation, that a majority of the ownership interest in the partnership or corporation is owned by a bona fide resident of the State of South Dakota.

(B) All applications for a gaming license must be accompanied by the appropriate initial application fee, which shall include the cost of investigation. Application fees are non-refundable and the applicant may be required to pay any additional costs which may arise in connection with the investigation.

(C) Initial application fees shall vary according to the license type requested and shall be collected as follows:

(1) Slot machine operator, one thousand dollars ($1000.00);

(2) Card Game Operator, one thousand dollars ($1000.00);

(3) Video Lottery Operator, one thousand dollars ($1000.00);

(4) Employee, twenty-five dollars ($25.00);

(5) Key employee, one hundred dollars ($100.00).

2. Untrue statements. The Commission may refuse to grant a license to any applicant who makes deliberate misstatements, deliberate omissions, misrepresentations, or untruths in any part of the application or in the background investigation. Applications for all gaming licenses, regardless of position applied for, shall contain the following notice:

A false statement on any part of your application may be grounds for not hiring you, or for firing you after you begin work. Also, you may be punished by fine or imprisonment. U.S. Code, title 18, section 1001.

3. Background Investigation. No application for a gaming license shall be deemed complete without a background investigation. Each application submitted shall contain a release, authorizing the conduct of such investigation including fingerprints.

- (A) Fingerprints of applicants shall be submitted to the South Dakota Gaming Commission and/or the Office of the Attorney General of the State of South Dakota, pursuant to the Compact between the State of South Dakota and the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe, to process an investigation into the applicant's criminal history, if any, through the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Criminal Information Center.
- (B) The State of South Dakota shall provide the Commission with a written report regarding each applicant within 30 days of receipt of the tribe's written request for investigation.
- (C) All background investigations conducted pursuant to this section shall be conducted according to requirements at least as stringent as those listed in 25 CFR §556, 558.

4. Application forms. All application forms, regardless of position applied for, shall contain the following statement regarding the Privacy Act:

NOTICE: All applicants are advised that this personal history information is an official document and misrepresentation or failure to reveal information requested may be deemed to be sufficient cause for the refusal or revocation of a license. Applicant may be subject to fine and/or imprisonment. 18 USC §1001.

All applicants are further advised that an application for a gaming license, finding of suitability or other action may not be withdrawn without the permission of the Executive Secretary of the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribal Gaming Commission and/or the South Dakota Commission on Gaming.

All applicants are further advised of compliance with the Privacy Act of 1974. Solicitation of the information on this application is authorized by 25 USC §2701, et. seq. The purpose of the requested information is to determine the eligibility of individuals to be employed in a gaming operation. This information may be disclosed to appropriate Federal, Tribal, State, local, or foreign law enforcement and regulatory agencies when relevant to civil, criminal or regulatory investigations or prosecutions or when pursuant to a requirement by a Tribe in connection with the hiring or firing of an employee, the issuance or revocation of a gaming license, or investigations of activities while associated with a tribe or gaming operation. Failure to consent to the disclosures indicated will result in the tribe's being unable to hire you in a primary management official, key employee, or support employee position. The disclosure of a Social Security number (SSN) is voluntary. However, failure to supply a SSN may result in errors in processing an application.

Each applicant applying for a gaming license must execute a Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribal Investigation Authorization and Release of Credit Information form. This will authorize the Gaming Commission to obtain a criminal record if such record exists and to obtain any financial information which is available. This form releases, waives, discharges and agrees to hold harmless the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe, the Tribal Commission on Gaming and designated persons, from all liability for any claim or damage resulting from the release of this information. All information gathered as a result of this investigation will be held confidential.

Each applicant is instructed that it is necessary to submit a copy of Internal Revenue Service returns for the past three (3) years. Attached is IRS Form 8821, to be completed, with name signed and printed.

5. Submission of completed application. Upon receipt of the written report from the State of South Dakota, the Executive Secretary shall compile the information along with his/her narrative verifying all information submitted by the applicant. When the application is deemed to be complete, the Executive Secretary shall submit said application to the Commission for final approval or disapproval.

Section 17-4-2. Licensing Requirements for Key Employees and Primary Management Officials.

1. Application Requirements. All applicants for licensing as a key employee or management official, in addition to requirements set out on Section 17-4-1, shall complete an application with the following information:

    - (D) A list of potential problems in the application or any report.
    - (E) A report of any disqualifying information.
    - (F) Narratives of all communication with applicant's personal and business references.
  5. Completed applications. The Executive Secretary shall review all reports including the background investigations and shall either approve the reports or return them for further investigation. Upon a determination by the Secretary that the application file is complete, the Secretary shall forward the completed file and all pertinent documentation to the Commission for final determination of suitability for employment.

6. NIGC approval. Upon a determination by the Commission, that the applicant is suitable for employment and prior to issuing a license, the Commission shall forward an investigative report to the National Indian Gaming Commission, pursuant to Title 25, Code of Federal Regulation, § 556.5 for final approval. The investigative report shall include all of the following:
  - (A) Steps taken in conducting a background investigation;
  - (B) Results obtained.
  - (C) Conclusions reached, and
  - (D) The bases for those conclusions.
7. Unsuitable Applicants: If the Tribe does not license an applicant, the Secretary shall forward a report to the NIGC stating said decision and may forward copies of its investigative report (if any.)

CHAPTER 5 LICENSES

Section 17-4-1. License Revocable. Any license issued under this Ordinance is revocable and no person holding a license acquires any vested right in such license.

1. License revocation. A license may be revoked upon a finding by the Commission of a violation of the Gaming Ordinance or gaming regulations. A person holding a license shall be notified that revocation of his license is being considered by the Commission. The license holder may, upon such notice, request an informal hearing before the Commission prior to the revocation of his license. Any disciplinary action, including the suspension or revocation of a gaming license, shall comply with provisions of Chapter 10, Disciplinary Proceedings, of the Gaming Commission Rules and Regulations.
