MEMORANDUM FOR DOMESTIC POLICY COUNCIL

FROM: Carol H. Rasco, Assistant to the President for Domestic Policy

SUBJECT: Meeting schedule for early 1994

As we enter a new calendar year as well as the start of a new Congressional agenda, we will meet on a trial basis every other Monday afternoon from 5 to 6 p.m. at the White House. These meetings will begin Monday, January 10 with the meeting room to be designated on the agenda sent to you on Thursday preceding the meeting.

You are invited to submit agenda items for these meetings which are designed to give the Council members as well as the White House staff to the Council an opportunity to communicate with one another on interagency issues, share ideas on emerging initiatives, and identify needed areas for planning/action. Potential agenda items should be submitted in writing to Rosalyn Miller in my office by noon on the Wednesday preceding a regular meeting. A DPC staff member will then call your office to discuss the potential item and the time available for discussion.

We will try this format suggested by many of you for the months of January and February at which time we will reevaluate the frequency of the meetings as well as the format. These meetings are designed for Principals only. In the case of your inability to attend, you are invited to name an Assistant Secretary as your designee for that meeting. Due to space limitations there will only be room for one person per Department at each meeting - either the Secretary or her/his designee of an Assistant Secretary.

Thank you and my best wishes to you as we enter the holiday season.
