I checked with Paul Marchand about our meeting tomorrow and the possible topics they might be raising. In that 30 minutes, he hopes to present five clusters:
1) health care reform (inc their concerns re fate of long-term care proposal)
2) their "scorecard" on agency responsiveness to their community;
3) a particular legislative issue on assisted housing (he didn't have details);
4) SSA on reengineering process and Zebley backlash; and
5) any suggestions from you re plugging their concerns into Budget process.

It sounded as if items 1 and 4 would be the most substantive.

I'll see you at 9:45 tomorrow before they arrive on various matters.

Cheers!

SUBJECT:      Re. The ARC/Paul Marchand

Stan,

Carol received a letter from Paul Marchand in April saying "I believe it's time to take you up on your kind offer to meet with the Governmental Affairs staff again to further discuss and pursue our mental retardation and developmental disabilities public policy issues."...I hope your hectic schedule can accommodate this meeting request in the near future."

Carol wanted a "read" on whether she still "needs to meet with these folk/ whether they are still expecting a meeting."

Please advise.

Additionally, Carol will be in Baltimore on Friday June 17 for the SPEECH at the American Rehab. Assoc. She will need the speech notes by WEDNESDAY, JUNE 15TH.

Do you have any plans to meet CHR in Baltimore that am. The speech is set for 8:30a.m. She just wanted to know/not a request.

Please advise CHR re. these matters.

Thanks,

Pat

Dear Carol,

A belated thank you for your outstanding presentation at The Arc's Governmental Affairs Seminar. Not surprisingly, the evaluations filled out by our participants were replete with high praise for you and your stirring message. Everyone thought you were terrific.

I believe it's time to take you up on your kind offer to meet with the Governmental Affairs staff again to further discuss and pursue our mental retardation and developmental disabilities public policy issues. Among the items we wish to explore with you are:

- o continuing concerns about the Supplemental Security Income program;
- o DOL job initiatives and their relationship to our constituency;
- o the need to expeditiously appoint a vice chair and members to PCMR; and
- o President Clinton's (and/or Mrs. Clinton's) participation in the May 2 disability march for health care reform.

I hope your hectic schedule can accommodate this meeting request in the near future. I will call your secretary to check on possible dates next week.

Again, thank you for participating in our Seminar and for your continued advocacy on behalf of our constituency.

Sincerely,

Paul Marchand
