

Congressman Chris Van Hollen

Invites You To His Forum

Your Money Matters: Financial Consumer Protection for Today's Economy

Held in Cooperation with
The Montgomery County Office of Consumer Protection

Tuesday, May 17, 2011
7 – 9 p.m.
Silver Spring Civic Center

Your Money Matters! Making smart money decisions is more important than ever in today's economic environment. This forum brings together a wide range of experts to provide you with information to help you be a more informed and savvy consumer.

Talk to experts, gather information and learn more about:

Mail fraud * Check fraud * Lotteries and sweepstake scams
Cell phone billing practices * Investment scams * Foreclosure prevention
Housing rescue scams * New rules for credit cards and ATM cards
Credit reports and scores * Identity theft * Reverse mortgages * Buying insurance *
Safe computing issues, spam, firewalls, spyware/malware * Tips to help keep kids safe online * Medicare fraud * Long-term care issues *
Benefit advice for veterans and Social Security recipients * And more.

When: Tuesday, May 17, 2011
7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Where: Silver Spring Civic Center
One Veterans Plaza, corner of Fenton and Ellsworth Streets
Silver Spring, Maryland 20910

Questions: Please call (301) 424-3501

If you need special accommodations, please call 301-424-3501.
Parking is available at the In-Town Garage, 801 Ellsworth St., across the street from the Center.