

One of the stained glass windows in the Ft. Myer Chapel in Arlington, Virginia was donated by the United States Marine Corps and dedicated to the memory of all Marines who have died since the founding of the Corps on 10 November 1775.

