SENIORS PROTECTION WORKSHOP

Hosted by Congressman Randy Forbes

A weak economy makes it easier for identity and financial fraud thieves to prey on vulnerable and unsuspecting individuals. Identity thieves are constantly using new and creative ways to steal your personal and private information.

However, with proper education and the necessary tools, you can substantially reduce the risk of becoming a victim.

Congressman Forbes is hosting a free Seniors Protection Workshop to make sure you know how to protect your identity, how to properly save personal information, and how to find out what scams are targeting seniors.
