1996 Final Marginal Cost Analysis Study
WP-96-FS-BPA-04(E1)

Page 9, lines 6-8: Replace the sentence “They were also adjusted to compensate for actual capacity returns to BPA’ s systems that differ from the assumption used in PMDAM.” with the following “They were also adjusted, during the months May-September, so that they varied directly with loads in California and the Inland Southwest, which drive the market for capacity during the summer.”
