SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined to (1) extend the date by which it must determine whether to review the final initial determination (“ID”) issued by the presiding administrative law judge (“ALJ”) in the above-captioned investigation to August 24, 2009, and (2) extend the target date for completion of the investigation to October 23, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted this investigation on December 12, 2007, based on a complaint filed by SanDisk Corporation of Milpitas, CA. The complaint alleged violations of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain flash memory controllers, drives, memory cards, media players, and products containing the same by reason of infringement of various claims of five United States patents. The complaint named nearly fifty respondents. The number of patents, claims, and respondents has since been amended.

On April 10, 2009, the ALJ issued a final ID finding no violation of section 337. The Commission has determined to extend the date by which it must determine whether to review the ALJ's final ID from June 22, 2009, to August 24, 2009. The Commission has also determined to extend the target date for completion of the investigation from August 10, 2009, to October 23, 2009.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 C.F.R. Part 210).

By order of the Commission.
