NCUA Board Member Gigi Hyland will host the webinar, which will provide a basic review of federal share insurance regulations as well as a discussion of available resources and operational considerations. The webinar is designed to be interactive. A Q&A will be an integral part of the presentation.

The webinar will be held from 1:00 - 2:30 p.m. (EDT).

The National Credit Union Administration is the independent federal agency that regulates, charters and supervises federal credit unions. NCUA, with the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, also operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund (NCUSIF), insuring the deposits of nearly 89 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the majority of state-chartered credit unions
