Case No.: 06-20979-CIV-JORDAN

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR AN EX PARTE STATUTORY RESTRAINING ORDER CONCERNING ASSETS AND DOCUMENTS

Plaintiff, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Commission"), has filed a Complaint for permanent injunction and other relief, and moved pursuant to Section 6c of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (the "Act"), 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2003), for an Ex Parte Statutory Restraining Order prohibiting the defendant, First International Group, from, among other things, dissipating, concealing, transferring, or otherwise disposing of any assets, as set forth below; and an Ex Parte Statutory Restraining Order prohibiting all the defendants, from destroying, altering or disposing of, or refusing to permit authorized representatives of the Commission to inspect and copy, when and as requested, any books, records, electronically stored data, including computers and computer data, or other documents wherever they may be.

As it appears to the Court that the Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, that Section 6c of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1, authorizes ex parte relief, that there is good cause to believe that the defendants have engaged in, are engaging in, or are about to engage in violations of the Act, and that this is a proper case for granting an Ex Parte Statutory Restraining Order to preserve the status quo, protect public customers from loss and damage, and enable the Commission to fulfill its statutory duties, the Court orders as follows:

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Order, the following definitions apply:

1. The term “document” is synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of the term in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a), and includes, but is not limited to, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, audio and video recordings, computer records (including, but not limited to, floppy diskettes, hard disks, ZIP disks, CD-ROMs, optical discs, backup tapes, printer buffers, smart cards, memory calculators, pagers, personal digital assistants such as Palm Pilot computers, as well as printouts or readouts from any magnetic storage device), and other data compilations from which information can be obtained and translated, if necessary, through detection devices into reasonably usable form. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of the term.

2. First International Group, Inc. means First International Group, a Florida Corporation whose address is 1001 Brickell Bay Drive #2110, Miami, Florida and d/b/a First International Trading Group, Inc. and any person insofar as he or she is acting in the capacity of their officer, agent, servant, employee or attorney, and any person who receives actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise insofar as he or she is acting in concert or participating with them.

3. United Clearing, LLC means United Clearing, a Florida Corporation whose address is 601 S. Federal Highway Suite 202, Boca Raton, FL 33432 and any person insofar as he or she is acting in the capacity of their officer, agent, servant, employee or attorney, and any person who receives actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise insofar as he or she is acting in concert or participating with them.

4. Michael Mesa, an individual, residing at 8220 NW 157th Terrace, Miami, FL 33016 and any person insofar as he or she is acting in the capacity of his officer, agent, servant, employee or attorney, and any person who receives actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise insofar as he or she is acting in concert or participating with him.

5. Tom Keesee, an individual, residing at 16681 NW 82nd Ave, Hialeah, FL 33016 and any person insofar as he or she is acting in the capacity of his officer, agent, servant, employee or attorney, and any person who receives actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise insofar as he or she is acting in concert or participating with him.
