

OFFICE OF MULTIFAMILY HOUSING PROGRAMS

ADDRESSING ACCESSIBILITY IN CAPITAL NEEDS ASSESSMENTS

Identifying Accessibility Problems and Remedies

Date: Friday, May 18, 2012
Time: 8:30am – 5:00pm
Address: HUD Headquarters Building, 451 7th Street SW, Washington DC 20410
Brook-Mondale Auditorium, Suite A/B, 1st Floor

You are invited to attend a free training course offered by HUD's Office of Multifamily Housing Programs, Office of Development.

Who should attend?

- Third party due diligence professionals and needs assessors
- Lenders
- Architects, attorneys and owner representatives

RSVP to:

Rita.Simmons@HUD.gov Please include, name, phone, company name and e-mail. For questions contact Sylvia Chatman, Sylvia.S.Chatman@hud.gov or 202-708-1142 xt 2994.

Webcasting:

This session will be webcast for future viewing and for those who cannot attend in person. The webcast address is <http://portal.hud.gov/hudportal/HUD?src=/webcasts/schedule>

Parking and directions:

The HUD building is on the corner 7th and D Streets SW in Washington, DC adjacent to L'Enfant Plaza. Driving directions can be found here: HUD HQ 451 7th Street SW. Parking is scarce, but the L'Enfant Plaza Metro Station services the Yellow, Green, Blue and Orange lines. Only the south building entrance is now open to visitors – located on the 7th Street side nearest to the corner of 7th and E Street SW.

Security:

Photo ID is required for each visitor. To speed entry, we will submit names to security in advance, but please allot time for this and arrive by 8:00 a.m.

House-keeping:

Food and drink are not permitted in the auditorium, but the coffee shop (Cyber Café) and cafeteria (serving breakfast) open at 7:00 a.m. Also L'Enfant Plaza features a food court. You are free to exit the building at periodic breaks, but keep your visitor sticker with you to re-enter.