ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR AN EX PARTE STATUTORY RESTRAINING ORDER
CONCERNING ASSETS AND DOCUMENTS

James N. Hotten, Clerk
By: [Signature] Deputy Clerk

Plaintiff, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("Commission"), has filed a Complaint for permanent injunction and other relief, and moved pursuant to Section 6c of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (the "Act"), 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2002), for an Ex Parte Statutory Restraining Order prohibiting the defendant, Saxon Financial Services, Inc, from, , transferring, or otherwise disposing of any assets, as set forth below; and an Ex Parte Statutory Restraining Order prohibiting all the defendants, from destroying, altering or disposing of, or refusing to permit authorized representatives of the Commission to inspect and copy, when and as requested, any books, records, electronically stored data, including computers and computer data, or other documents wherever they may be; and authorizing and directing the U.S. Marshall's Office to accompany and to assist Commission representatives in the service and execution of this order and to undertake such efforts as are reasonably necessary to ensure that the Commission representatives have an unimpeded right to inspect and to copy as established by this Order.

As it appears to the Court that the Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, that Section 6c of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1, authorizes ex parte relief, that there is good cause to believe that the defendant has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in violations of the Act, and that this is a proper case for granting an Ex Parte Statutory Restraining Order to preserve the status quo, protect public customers from loss and damage, and enable the Commission to fulfill its statutory duties, the Court orders as follows:
