

U.S. Army Combined Arms Center
and Fort Leavenworth

Thomas Jordan

(Brigadier General, USA retired)

Capabilities Development
Integration Directorate (CDID)

Mr. Thomas Jordan, (Brigadier General, USA retired) began his service to the Nation as a private Soldier enlisting in the Army in March, 1972. Later commissioned as an Infantry Officer in January, 1978, he subsequently served for a total of 33 years in various command and staff positions from platoon through division. Key assignments included two company commands, S3 (operations officer) of two infantry battalions, Chief, War Plans, G-3, III Corps; Battalion Commander, 2-16 Infantry, 1st infantry Division; 71ST Regimental Commander of the 3d US Infantry, The Old Guard; Executive Officer to the Commander in Chief, United Nations Command/ Combined Forces/United States Forces Korea; Deputy J5 Plans and Policy, US Forces Korea; Assistant Division Commander (Maneuver), 2d Infantry Division, Eighth US Army, Korea and Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations, G-3/5/7, US Army Forces Command.

Upon retirement from the Army on 1 Jan 2007, Mr Jordan continued his service to the Nation while working as the Director of Force Management, Combined Arms Center, Ft Leavenworth, Kansas. He was designated as the Director of the newly formed Capability Development and Integration Directorate in March, 2008 and continues in this capacity to the present. Mr. Jordan is a 1976 Cum Laude graduate from Upper Iowa University with a Bachelors degree in Political Science. He is a graduate of Command and General Staff College and the School of Advanced Military Studies, Ft Leavenworth, Kansas. He also holds a Master of Personnel Management degree from Troy University; is a 1998 graduate of the Army War College at Carlisle, Pennsylvania; and is a graduate of the 2004 Capstone Course.