

MEDIA ADVISORY

For Immediate Release
August 10, 2011

William H. Herbig, AICP
202-482-7270 or will@ncpc.gov
Stephen Staudigl
202-482-7279 or stephen@ncpc.gov

Tonight: Public Invited to Help Update the Comprehensive Plan

Washington, DC – Do you have ideas about active commuting, bicycling, and/or federal facility location priorities? Tonight, from 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. NCPC will host a public forum to discuss these topics and more as part of draft policy updates proposed for the Federal Transportation and Workplace Elements of the Comprehensive Plan for the National Capital.

Members of the public are invited to review and comment on the draft policy updates at the meeting and online. Public comments will be accepted through September 12.

The Comprehensive Plan for the National Capital Region is the principal policy document that guides planning and development in and around the National Capital Area. The Comp Plan is a unified plan comprised of two components – the Federal and District Elements. The Federal Elements are prepared by the National Capital Planning Commission, and provide a policy framework for the federal government in managing its operations and activity in the National Capital Region. The District Elements are prepared by the District of Columbia Office of Planning.

Additional information, as well as the meeting agenda and background material, is available on NCPC's website.

- Who: National Capital Planning Commission
- What: Public Forum: Let's Talk Comp Plan (Federal Transportation and Workplace Elements)
- When: Wednesday, August 10, 2011, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.
(Open house at 6:30 p.m., meeting and live stream begin at 7 p.m.)
- Where: NCPC's Offices
401 9th Street, NW Suite 500N, Washington, DC
Metro: Archives-Navy Memorial-Penn Quarter | Gallery Pl-Chinatown
- Note: The event is free and open to the public. RSVPs are encouraged.
- Live: The event will stream live beginning at 7 p.m.: www.ncpc.gov/live

###