DT: MAY 4, 1994
RE: ADDITIONAL INFO ON NCSL

I have some additional information for you on the NCSL luncheon on Saturday. There will be two host tables at the front of the room. NCSL has reserved 2 seats for you and your mother at one of these tables. Michael Bird and Carl Tubbesing of NCSL will be looking for you around noon. They are sending us a list of additional Arkansans who will be in attendance. I will get this to you as soon as I get it. Most likely, Jodie Mahoney will introduce you at about 12:30. They are hoping you can speak till around 1:00 and then take questions. Michael Bird has promised me that he will plant some friendly questions from some of our friends in the audience. You should be aware that your address is OPEN TO THE PRESS.

Michael suggested some areas of interest to the state legislators which you may want to address. They are welfare reform, health care reform, immigration issues, the National Performance Review and unfunded mandate relief. Give me a call if you have any questions. Thanks again!

MEMORANDUM

TO: CAROL RASCO
FR: JOHN HART
DT: MAY 3, 1994
RE: NCSL ADDRESS

Thanks for agreeing to speak to the National Conference of State Legislatures closing plenary luncheon on Saturday. Their conference is examining several national domestic issues, such as welfare reform, health care reform and crime and violence, so there is a range of issues that they are interested in hearing from you on. They are interested in the state-federal roles on these issues and I think they will appreciate your experience in state government and the vision you bring to the White House as a result.

I. Logistics

Date: Saturday, May 7, 1994
Time: 12:00 noon
Location: Hyatt Regency Capitol Hill,
Regency A Ballroom

Contact: Michael Bird (NCSL Staff)

II. Background

You will be addressing NCSL on the last day of their Spring Conference. There will be around 700 state legislators, legislative staff and private sector representatives in attendance. A large portion of the conference is devoted to committee meetings. I have attached ad agenda of the conference for your review.

NCSL is the largest bi-partisan organization representing the state legislators in the country. They have headquarters in both Washington and Denver. The Washington office serves as their legislative liaison with Congress and the Federal government. They have been consulted on all of the Administration's major domestic initiatives.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

02-May-1994 11:57am

TO: Carol H. Rasco
FROM: John P. Hart
Intergovernmental Affairs
CC: Rosalyn A. Miller
SUBJECT: May 7 Speech to NCSL; DGA/Health care follow-up

Carol,

Thanks for agreeing to speak to the National Conference of State Legislators' State - Federal Assembly on May 7. You will be the featured speaker to the closing plenary luncheon that will have over 500 legislators in attendance. Your Mom is more than welcome to come.

I will send over materials on the NCSL event and a staff contact.

The meeting this morning went well. Everyone is on message. I will follow-up with Ray to arrange for a policy meeting on Medicaid. In the meantime, Kathy Hoyt and I will be speaking with each other often.
